

Soccer Team Prepares For Match With Czechs

Pete Klefer, manager of the Continental Soccer League All-Stars, released a list of 22 players considered as possible starters against Slavia Prague of Czechoslovakia on Sunday, Nov. 26 at Continental Field in Torrance.

The list is dominated by members of the Los Angeles

Toros, several of whom are currently competing in the local semi-pro circuit.

Steve Fusz, trainer of the all-stars, will have the following players at his disposal for an extensive 2 week training period: Herbert Lenzinger, Salvador Reyes, Ronald Crisp, Novak Tomic, Lucio Calonga, Eli Durante, Cirilo Fernandez, Ronald Mata, Manuel Abaunza, Lothar Spranger, Davit Coskin and Helmut Weiss (all Los Angeles Toros); Andy Dick, Mike Medrano, Terry Mulvoy (Lynwood Falcons); Al Zerhusen, Freddy Cameron, John Toth, John Dolstra, Gunther Franzke, Julio Carmiol (Los Angeles S.C.); Joe Clement (Hollywood Stars); and Robert Sotomajor (Montebello Armenians).

USAC first scheduled a road race for championship cars two years ago at Raceway Park in Indianapolis. The event was highly successful and was repeated last year. Also in 1966, USAC sanctioned a non-championship points event in Japan which met with high approval.

The addition of a championship race at Riverside Raceway is the first important step toward an increased schedule of championship road races. It is entirely feasible that, within a few years, more road circuits will be added to the schedule and racing will continue to flourish.
