

Long-Time Residents

Allens Honored on Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen, 20527 Osage Ave., were honored at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Landerville, 1121 Cranbrook Ave. on Saturday, Nov. 9, celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary.

Co-hosting with the Landervilles were Mrs. Naomi Grogan, 142 Via Pasqual, and the Allens' daughter, Susan Lea, and her escort, David Elliott.

The lace-covered table was centered by a three-tiered anniversary cake topped by two wedding bells and encircled by lilies-of-the-valley. Champagne and punch were served with other refreshments.

Prominently displayed were pictures of the honored couple on their wedding day and a baby picture of their daughter, as well as a picture of the "Symbols of Time," a band composed of Torrance High School students and managed by Mr. and Mrs. Allen.

Guests also enjoyed a buffet supper served from a table centered by a silver tree, made by a long-time friend, Mrs. Constance Montgomery, who presented it to the Allens.

Special guests were Mr. Allen's mother, Mrs. Freda

Allen, 1019 Portola, pioneer Torrance resident; and Mrs. Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Homolka, 22914 Galva, also long-time Torrance residents. Mrs. Allen's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hamolka were also present. A highlight of the celebration was a long-distance call from Mrs. Allen's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gale Carter of Mer Rouge, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen were married Nov. 11, 1942, in Yuma, Ariz. They are members of the First Methodist Church and Mrs. Allen has been a member of the Torrance Woman's Club for many years.

Close friends celebrating the happy occasion were Messrs. and Mmes. Ralph Swall, Fred Bever, John Bandi, Clair Johnson, Bruce Drummond, Dick Thurber, Robert Waddell, John Morris, Jack Phillips, Lew Worthington, Joe Mongini, Richard Beecher, Jack Day, Jerry Janeck, Roy Taylor, Clyde Baker, Joseph Fattel, Gerald Collins, Stanley Spencer, Jim Luddy; and Dr. and Mrs. M. E. Webber.

Others were Mmes. Haslie Culver, Julia Evans, Nila Herrera, Mike Denler, Louie Croucier, Tom Croucier, Kirk Moore, Fred Beato, Bob James, Roger Trammel and David Baker.

Also Bill Koehler, Larry Moore, Mary Koehler, De-rene Byers, Minnie McConlogue, Nettie Fattel, Elizabeth Murray.

Adding congratulations were Misses Denise Landerville, Kathy Cronenberg, Barbara Phillips, Patti Collins, Penny Burnett, Jerry Hornbeck, Carol Knight, Colette and Patsy Landerville.

Bridge Party

Mrs. Albert Isen entertained her bridge club at a luncheon at the Latitude 20 last Thursday afternoon after which the group returned to her home at 4539 Vista Largo for an afternoon of bridge.

At the conclusion of the games, high score was held by Mrs. Ellis Owen with Mrs. C. M. Crook, second.

Mrs. Isen's guests were Mmes. Chris Jones, E. A. Miles, H. R. Richards, Ellis Owen, C. M. Crook, Hazel Ward, and Helen Silligo.

Mrs. Owen will be hostess to the club at its Nov. 30 meeting.

A Sincere Thank You

The father of a local family, in which there are 11 children, serving with the United States Navy gets a sincere thank-you from the staff at the Riviera Hospital, who will supply a complete Thanksgiving dinner plus toys and clothing to the wife and children. This is the fourth year that the hospital staff has aided a needy family. Loading a large basket with gifts are from left, Mrs. Mona Taylor, on the nursing staff; Arnaldo Gonzales, business manager and Mrs. Richey Ebner in the bookkeeping department. Mrs. Clara Snipp, director of nursing, is in charge of the project. (Press-Herald Photo)

Wilkes Note Anniversary With Party

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkes, 22718 Nadine Circle, celebrated their first wedding anniversary last Friday. Mrs. Wilkes is the former Phyrre Laughon.

On Saturday evening, to mark the occasion, the Wilkes entertained 20 close friends at cocktails at their home, after which they took their guests to Lococo's restaurant for dinner.

Entertains

Mrs. Don Moore was hostess to her club at a dessert bridge Wednesday evening at her home 4327 Vista Largo.

High score was held by Mrs. Richard Beecher with Mrs. James Nichols, second. After the games, the hostess served a dessert.
