

Christmas Bazaar Slated Tomorrow

The 28th Annual Christmas Bazaar sponsored by St. Anne's Hospital Guild, will be held Monday, Nov. 27, in the Grand Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. During the day, the Bazaar is open to the public free of charge. A snack bar will serve kitchen-fresh sandwiches, cakes and coffee and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico is manning a refreshment table.

Joining with the Guild to present the traditional event are the nine volunteer organizations affiliated with St. Anne's Foundation and St. Anne's Maternity Hospital.

The benefit for St. Anne's Maternity Hospital is under the direction of Mrs. Russell T. Martin, Guild president, Mrs. Constantine Tori, bazaar chairman and Mrs. John Herbert Carlson, assistant bazaar chairman.

A boon to Yuletide shoppers are the many new, exciting and exquisite items to be found in the twenty-four booths.

A souvenir program will be distributed to the shoppers at the fund-raising event. In the evening, Ivan Scott and his orchestra will play for the invitational cocktail and dinner hour.

South Bay area booth and committee chairmen assisting with the Christmas Bazaar include Mmes. Otto Kramer, Milton L. Berg, Glynn W. Bingham, Clyde R. Carr, Sam E. Daugherty, George Ducoff, Aubrey G. Hickman, George Kopp, Curtis H. Lappen, Edgar O. Mailoux, and Herbert I. Robinson.

Bazaar Heralds Yuletide

Grand Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton will be the setting for the mammoth one-day Christmas Bazaar to be staged by the St. Anne's Guild as a benefit for St. Anne's Foundation and the St. Anne's Maternity Hospital, tomorrow. Local guild members, with bazaar items they have made, are, from left, Mmes. Sam Daugherty, with a "partridge in the pear tree" table decoration; Otto L. Kramer and her Christmas tree decorated with tiny gift boxes; and Mrs. George E. Kopp, lighting a Yule candle.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

NOVEMBER 26, 1967

B-1

Mission Guild Presents

Fall Festival of Fashion

Bridge, luncheon and a fashion show will be features of a "Fall Festival of Fashion" tomorrow, Nov. 27 at the Los Verdes Country Club, sponsored by the Mother Butler Mission Guild of Marymount College.

Fifty tables for bridge foursomes have been reserved, according to Mrs. William F. Monahan, chairman of the event. Playing will begin at 10:30 a.m., followed by fashions from a Lunada Bay salon and luncheon at 1 p.m.

Table favors and centerpieces have been designed by Mrs. Frank Calandrino of San Pedro.

International in scope, the Mother Butler Guild sews and makes vestments for missionaries scattered throughout the world. The local group has also recently "adopted" an orphanage in Selma, Ala. which it supplies with infant and children's clothing.

The Fall Festival will be the group's chief fund-raising event for the year, said Mrs. Monahan.

Mrs. William Dewar is acting as co-chairman, and assisting in the arrangements are Mmes. Harold Euker, Wallace McLaughlin and Robert Haase.

Reservations are being accepted by Mrs. Monahan and Mrs. Euker. Door prizes donated by local merchants will be awarded.

Bridge Fashions Flowers

Discussing final plans for the "Fall Festival of Fashion," a bridge luncheon and style show to be held Nov. 27 at the Los Verdes Country Club, are committee members of the Mother Butler Mission Guild, sponsors of the event. Mmes. Frank Brennan, Frank Calandrino and Wallace McLaughlin add the finishing touches to one of the floral pieces to be used.

Christmas Fiesta

Spotlighting the social calendar for the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club is the annual Christmas Dinner Dance, titled "Christmas Fiesta" to be held at Loco's restaurant on Saturday, Dec. 2. A cocktail hour is slated from 7:30 p.m. until 8:30, followed by a prime rib dinner and dancing. The public is invited to join the club on this gala occasion. Working out decorating plans are Mrs. R. H. Carpenter, left, dance chairman, and Mrs. Michael Cochran, hanging a garland on the fireplace, while Mrs. William Rittenhouse, center, looks at two table trees she has decorated. Mrs. Marie Sullivan and Wayne McElrath are also on the committee.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Christmas Joy for Others

Lady Elks Plan Workshop

A day-long workshop to be spent in preparing to make the holiday season brighter for others is planned by the Torrance Ladies of the Elks, for Tuesday, Nov. 28, at the Elks lodge, 1820 Abalone.

Members and others wishing to participate in the project will bring cigar boxes to decorate and to fill with items of use to elderly men and women patients at the Harbor Hospital. The decorated boxes will be filled with shaving cream, lotions, combs, mirrors, toothpaste, tooth brushes and other toiletries.

Mrs. Kenneth McRae, past president, will demonstrate the making of decorations for the six-foot vinyl tree the Elk Ladies will decorate for the hospital ward. Bringing holiday happiness to these elderly patients, the members will take the decorations to the hospital, giving the patients the joy of watching the tree become a symbol of Christmas.

December 18 is the date set by the Ladies of the Elks for their trip to the hospital. At this time, they will also deliver the decorated Christmas boxes of gifts.

Ideas for making centerpieces for the holiday season will also be shared by Mrs. McRae.

Adding fun to the Christmas workshop, those attending will wear original Christmas hats which will be judged with prizes going to the winners.

Mrs. Robert Ayala, second vice president, is chairman of the Christmas Workshop.

Hawaiian Noel Topic For Alphi Pi Program

Mrs. Grady Causey, housemother for the Alpha Psi chapter of Alpha Delta Pi at the University of Southern California, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the South Bay Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae association Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Stewart, 28209 Montereina Dr., San Pedro. Mrs. Grant Langley is co-hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. Causey will delight members and guests with a program of Christmas decorations, Hawaiian style, and further enchant her audience with a menu for the California buffet, invitingly changed to a Holiday Luau.

Her experience professionally includes running a catering service and working with Kamahameha, Honolulu, and the summer Howard Tours to Hawaii.

Assisting Mrs. Causey with the program will be actives from the Alpha Phi chapter, Christie Zemba, Lawndale; Jacqueline Jones, Westchester; Nan Ferguson, Whittier; Christine Cooling, Encino; and Martha Stone, San Marino.

Time Well Spent

With the happiness of the elderly patients at Harbor Hospital in mind, Torrance Ladies of the Elks will gather at their club next Tuesday to make Christmas decorations and gifts to be taken to the hospital on Dec. 18. Enjoying a chat, as they work for others, are, from left, Mmes. Robert Hansford, decorating a tree; Henry Davis, creating a table decoration; and Kenneth McRae, filling a decorated cigar box with items for the patients.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Christmas in November Specks in Greece

Mr. and Mrs. William Speck, former Torrance residents, who have made their home in Mexico City for the past two years, are now on a six months assignment in Athens, Greece. Mr. Speck is with American Standards.

After receiving their new assignment, the Specks came to Torrance for six days with their daughters and families, before going on to Greece.

Stops for short tours in New York and London were enjoyed by the couple enroute to Athens.

During their visit here, on Nov. 5, the family Christmas Party was held for them at the home of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kesselman in Walnut.

Other daughters and husbands attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kinneman of Garden Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dean of Rolling Hills.

Another daughter, coming from Provo, Utah, to attend the November Christmas party, was Mrs. Wilma Hein, who has an assistant professorship at the Brigham Young University.

A decorated Christmas tree, Santa on the fireplace, and a Christmas wreath on the door set the scene for the early Christmas, and 10 grandchildren wished the Specks a Merry Christmas.