

'Christmas in Song' Concert Set at ECC

"Christmas in Song," an El Camino College production by the Community Choir and Men's Glee Club, will be presented next Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. in the Campus Theater.

Directed by Crist Mikkelson, EC music instructor, the concert will consist of five parts. Opening the concert will be "Fanfare for Christmas," featuring the Choir and Glee Club. Gilbert Tovar and Jerry Schwartz will be featured on trumpet, and James Baker and Michael Larson on trombone.

"A Christmas Cantata" will be sung with solos by Miss Shirley Irvin, Miss Eleanor Maes, and John Stanton.

Also presented during this part of the concert will be "Magnificat in G," sung by soloists Keith Kermeier, tenor; Gary Chatburn, baritone; and Alden Willis, bass. Accompanying them will be the String Ensemble under the direction of James E. Mack, conductor, presenting the "Concerto Grotto, Op. 8, No. 8."

"The Alleluia" by Mozart will feature soprano Miss Mary Ward.

The Men's Glee Club, with soloist Charles McCutcheon, tenor, will present a medley of well known Christmas carols sung by the Glee Club and Brass Choir.

The final performance by the Men's Glee Club and the College Community Choir will be "Glory be to God" (Motet for Christmas Day) with Tom Owens playing the organ.

Admission to this Christmas concert is free.

St. Andrew's Plans Series Of Sermons

A series of sermons observing the Penitential Season of Advent will be offered by the Rev. Hugh R. Percy, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave., beginning next Sunday, commonly called "Stir-Up Sunday."

His first sermon will be under the title of "Concern," the rector said.

A sermon on "Consecration" will be delivered at the 9:15 and 11 a.m. services on the first Sunday in Advent, Dec. 3. It will be followed on Dec. 10 with a sermon at both morning services on "Commitment," and on Dec. 17 with "Christ's Coming."

A service of Holy Communion is held each Sunday morning at 7:30.

Yule Concert

The Christmas Choral Concert of California State College, Dominguez Hills, will be held Monday, Dec. 4, at 8:30 p.m. in the Theater Upstairs. The presentation, free to the public, will include selections from the College Women's Choral Group and instrumental music by the Dominguez Chambers Group.

Dr. David Rankin will read poetry.

Ellen Jones Wins Award At Tourney

Ellen Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones of Torrance, received an excellent award in oral interpretation at the Pacific Southwest College Forensic Association tournament held at El Camino College in October.

Miss Jones is a junior at Marymount College, Palos Verdes Estates, where she is majoring in speech with a minor in psychology-English. After graduation in 1969 from the University of Southern California, she plans to attend graduate school at High School.

Concert Slated At Homeowners' Yule Meeting

The Christmas meeting of the Riviera Homeowners Association will feature a program of Christmas music by the El Camino College Choral. Santa Claus will put in an appearance with gifts for the children.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 4, at the Parkway Elementary School, 220 Via Riviera. Refreshments will be served. Families of all Riviera residents are invited to join in the festivities.

Calvary Pupil Follows In Mother's Footsteps

When John Giordano's mother came to Calvary Baptist Elementary School last week for the parent-teacher conference, she was greeted by the Rev. Lawrence J. Clark, principal, who noted that John was the first pupil to be enrolled whose parent had previously attended the school.

Mrs. John R. Giordano attended Calvary Baptist Elementary School in the fifth and sixth grades. Her sixth grade teacher was Wayne Killingstad, now principal of Western Avenue Baptist School in Harbor City.

John Giordano is in kindergarten where he is already beginning to struggle with the concepts of new math. His teacher is Miss Doralee Howell.

"The school has changed a lot since I went here," Mrs. Giordano remarked. Changes since Mrs. Giordano attended the school include two new buildings, the use of TV in language instruction, the addition of a new playground, new curricula in math and science, and all new personnel except the Rev. H. Earl Kuester, church pastor, and Mrs. Jean Isaacs, former first grade teacher and now the substitute teacher.

God As Creator To Be Subject

"God the Only Cause and Creator," is the subject of the Sunday Lesson Sermon in all Christian churches.

The Responsive Reading includes this verse from Isaiah: "Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number; he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power: not one faileth."

Following the ceremony, the congregation will gather for refreshments in the Library-Museum.

Candle-Lighting Service Planned By Wayfarers

The Wayfarers' Chapel will hold its annual advent candle-lighting service this Sunday, Dec. 3, at 5 p.m. Wayfarers will join the choir in its traditional procession from the church, symbolizing the "light of the world" going from the church to the home.

The Chapel Choir, under the direction of Dorothy Simpson, has prepared special music for this carol vesper service.
