Marine Pvt. Murles Brown Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Brown of 18032 Faysmith, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the San Diego Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

He will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

Marine Pvt. Alvin R. DeVore Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin R. DeVore of 4522 W. 231st St., has completed four weeks of individual combat training at this Marine Corps Base. During his more than 200 hours of training, he learned about weapons and combat techniques from combat veteran instructors. They taught him how to conduct combat patrols, detect and remove mines and booby traps and use the standard Marine Corps infantry weapons.

Marine Cpl. Dimas Wasay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pascual Wasay of 403 E. Double Ave., was promoted to his present rank while serving with the Third Force Service Regiment, Fleet Marine Force Pacific on Okinawa.

His regiment is the main logistical supporting unit for the Marine units serving in the Republic of Viet Nam.

His promotion was based on time in service and rank, military appearance, and his knowledge of selected military subjects.

Army Pvt. Charles R. Leonard, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Terrell D. Leonard, 2040 W. 242nd St., Lomita, arrived at the Pleiku, Viet Nam, base camp of the 4th Infantry Division, Dec. 21.

Before being assigned to a specific unit, Pvt. Leonard received 50 hours of training with the division's 4th Replacement Detachment.

Training included field sanitation, civil affairs, mine and booby trap familiarization, reconnaissance and ambush patrolling.

A combat construction specialist, Leonard entered on active duty last July and was last stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

Marine Cpl. Jack W. Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Jenkins of 3827 W. 182nd St., is serving at Chu Lai, Viet Nam.

Marines with the battalion specialize in the handling and laying of land mines.

In addition to this, they also disarm and destroy enemy land mines and booby traps with which infantry units are constantly confronted.

MARK E. BENNETT
Marine Pvt. Mark E. Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bennett of 4247 W. 180th St., has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego. Pvt. Bennett was graduated Dec. 22 from the eight-week course.
