South High Elects New President

Tim Chang has been elected student body president at South High School following balloting by the Spartans. Chang succeeds Mike Lewis in the school's top student post.

Other student council officers include Nancy Vogl, vice president; Roy Campbell, club coordinator; Michelle DeArmitt, corresponding secretary.

Newly elected commissioners include Lynn Curtis, public relations; Lynne Alessio, publicity; Shawnee Keener, pep; Lana Pools, records; Louis Salatino, activities; Bruce Caukin, finance, and Dave Grimes, student control.

New class presidents are Katie McClung, seniors; Mike Farber, juniors; and Tom Zampas, sophomores. A run-off election for freshman class president has been scheduled between Dan Carlson and Lenny Schapira.

Trudy Fitzpatrick was elected president of the Girls' League and Mike Levanas was named president of the Boys' League.

Dance Class Slated

Social dance lessons will be offered beginning tomorrow at 8 p.m. by the Torrance Recreation Department at the Joslyn Recreation Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd.

Registration for the 10-week session must be completed at the first class meeting. Cost of the class is 75 cents per person.

Mrs. Margaret Michael, a professional dance instructor who has taught throughout the world and who specializes in the continental style, will instruct the class. She will teach all the basic ballroom steps as well as the popular new dances.

The class will be geared toward beginners, who will be taught basic dance steps, and the more advanced dancers, whose dancing skills will be polished.

Sisterhood Night Set At Temple

Southwest Temple Beth Torah will celebrate Sisterhood Sabbath at the Friday evening services this week with members of the Temple's Sisterhood taking part in the services.

Mrs. Joseph Goodis, vice chairman of the combined campaign of the National Women's League, Pacific Southwest Region, will be the guest speaker.

The service, which begins at 8:30 p.m., will be followed by an Oneg Shabbat, a religious social hour in honor of all Sisterhood members and their guests.

The Temple is affiliated with the United Synagogue of America and is located at 14725 S. Gramercy Place in Gardena.

Bookkeeper Faces Court Appearance

A Torrance bookkeeper arrested on suspicion of grand theft is scheduled to be arraigned on the charge tomorrow in Division 3 of the South Bay Municipal Court.

Lucille R. Old, 37, of 5233 Bindewald Road, was arrested Friday by Gardena police. She was released on bail of $2,750, police said.

Police said Mrs. Old was arrested after her employer, a certified public accountant, discovered $8,000 missing from the company checking account.
