

Little Company of Mary Auxiliary Installs

TAKE THE REINS OF LEADERSHIP

Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary, numbering approximately 500 women who donate hours of service as well as raise money for needed hospital equipment, installed its new board at the annual luncheon. They are, from left, Mmes. William E. Hartung, financial secretary; Francis X. McCormick, first vice president; Robert P. Lauderjung, third vice president; C. L. Fox, recording secretary; T. H. Roevens, second vice president; Edward Gonday, corresponding secretary; and Arthur Grayson, president.

ACCEPTS CHECK

Sister M. Magdalen, administrator of the Little Company of Mary Hospital, accepts the check for $15,000 from Mrs. Karl Ransom, who served as auxiliary president during the past year, as Sister Theresa looks on. The money will be used to pay for a television x-ray unit in the radiology department.

ENDOWED WITH DUTIES

In a candlelight ceremony, Sister M. Theresa, endows the duties of the office of the president on Mrs. Arthur Grayson, who will direct the activities of the Hospital Auxiliary for the year 1967.

FIRST NURSING SCHOLARSHIP

For the first time, the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary awarded a $100 scholarship to a Junior Auxiliary member, who will pursue a nursing career. Sylvia Apodaca won the first nursing award. She is pictured accepting it from Mrs. Harold Spores. (Photos by Hal Fisher)

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JANUARY 18, 1967

B-1

Fetes Volunteers; Presents Check; Gives Scholarship

Little Company of Mary Auxiliary at its annual luncheon at the Los Verdes Country Club installed its new officers, presented its check to the hospital, awarded a scholarship, and honored its volunteer workers.

New officers installed by Mrs. Karl Ransom, retiring president, and Sister M. Terrence, assistant administrator of the hospital, were Mmes. Arthur Grayson, president, Francis X. McCormick, T. H. Roevens, and Robert P. Lauderjung, vice presidents; Stanley R. Coughlan, treasurer; William E. Hartung, financial secretary; C. L. Fox, recording secretary; and Edward Gonday, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Ransom presented a check for $15,000 to Sister M. Magdalen, hospital administrator, to pay for a television x-ray for the radiology department, the auxiliary's 1966 project.

For the first time, the auxiliary awarded a $100 scholarship to a Junior Auxiliary member planning to pursue a nursing career. The scholarship recipient was Miss Sylvia Apodaca.

Special recognition was paid Mrs. George Olivieri for having served 7,000 hours as a volunteer and Mrs. Charles R. Hojie for 4,000 hours. Caps and pins were given to two women for 3,000 hours; four for 2,000 hours; 12 for 1,000 hours; eight for 500; 40 for 100 hours.

Special guests at the installation luncheon were F. Heber Kimball, M.D., new chief of staff at the hospital; Francis X. McCormick, new president of the hospital advisory board; Rev. Hugh Crowe, hospital chaplain.

Others were Mmes James E. Kimble, president of the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary; Joseph Fischer, president of the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary; Hal Lindborg, president Torrance Jaycettes; Robert Jordan, president District 9, Los Angeles County Medical Association Auxiliary; George Anderson, president-elect, County Medical Association Auxiliary; Ray Hickman, president of Las Vecinas; and James Layden, president of La Sertoma of Torrance.

Engagements

CAROL SEXTON
(Hedman's Photo)

Sexton - Kagy

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Sexton, 2413 W. 179th St., announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Marian, to John Franklin Kagy, II, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Kagy of Walnut Creek.

A February 1968 wedding is being planned. The future bride is a graduate of North High School and is now attending California State College at Long Beach as a home economics major.

Her fiancé, a Wilson High School graduate, received his degree in business administration from California State at Long Beach in 1965. He is employed by the National Cash Register Co. in Long Beach.

Ince - Rainey

A May 13 wedding at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo Beach is being planned by Miss Beth Ince and Michael Rainey.

Miss Ince is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan B. Ince, 222 Avenue G, and granddaughter of A. N. McLennan of Gold Beach, Ore., formerly of Redondo Beach.

Mr. Rainey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Rainey 2505 Ridgeland Ave., Torrance.

The bride-elect was graduated from Redondo Union High School and El Camino College. She is a senior at California State College at Long Beach, majoring in political science.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Taft High in Woodland Hills, attended El Camino College. He is now attending Officer Candidate School, United States Army, Fort Knox, Kentucky.

BETH INCE
(Monteleone Photo)

Greatest Football Year

Wives of Coaches To Sponsor Dance

The football coaches at Bishop Montgomery High School will be in the limelight as they share an evening of festivities and dancing with parents of students, alumni and friends of Bishop Montgomery High celebrating the greatest year in football for the school. The high school football team emerged as the Camino Real League Champions for 1966.

The gala evening has been planned by the coaches' wives, Mrs. George Swade, wife of the head coach serving as chairman, assisted by Mmes. James Arnaiz, Michael Antista, and Fred Diocsen, wives of the other coaches.

The Mellowtones will furnish the music for dancing from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. on Saturday evening, Jan. 21, at the St. Catherine Labouré Hall. During the evening, a football, autographed by all the Camino Real League Champions, will be awarded.

Among the special invitations issued to friends of Bishop Montgomery is one to Mrs. Lee Bernal, a former president of the Bishop Montgomery High School Mothers Club.

Proceeds from the gala benefit will go to the boys and girls athletic departments.

Those wishing to make reservations are asked to call the school, Mrs. George Swade or Mrs. Michael Antista.

LET'S CELEBRATE

Wives of coaches at Bishop Montgomery High School will sponsor a dance to celebrate the close of the school's best football year, when the team became the Camino Real League Champions for 1966. Mrs. Lee Bernal, left, former president of the Mothers Club and Mrs. Michael Antista, wife of a coach, hold the school banner while Mrs. James Arnaiz, also wife of a coach and former cheer leader at Brawley High, gives with a cheer. The dance is set for Saturday evening, Jan. 21, at the St. Catherine Labouré Hall. (Press-Herald Photo)