Man's Quick Action Wins Double Honor

The Annual Distinguished Service Award of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Great Lakes Properties' "Citizen of the Month" award were presented to Ron Schlosser at the Jaycees' annual award and bosses' night banquet. Featured speaker for the event was Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Doctors credited Schlosser with saving the life of his neighbor, Cotton Brady, who had suffered a cerebral hemorrhage, last June. Ron, who lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Schlosser in Torrance, used mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to restore breathing in Brady. Schlosser had learned the life-saving technique in his company's first aid course.

Ralph Grippo, state director of Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce, presented the Chamber's award, and Dave Godrich made the presentation for Great Lakes Properties.

Godrich also presented a $100 check to the Junior Chamber to aid their project in supporting the Methodist Missionary Hospital in India.

College Choral Groups Featured on Recording

A record featuring the El Camino College Concert Choir, Mixed Chorus, and Chorale will be available in the college's student store and music library beginning Feb. 6, Bruce Schwartz, choir president, said today.

Containing excerpts from the Christmas Concert, the record will be sold for $3.50. Also included are several instrumental ensembles based upon some of the songs.

"The tape of the Christmas Concert was of such exceptionally high quality that we thought it would be worthwhile to transcribe it to a record," Schwartz explained.

"We also felt it would be a good way of introducing people to the music department," he added.

The cost of the records is being taken from the choral organization's treasury and no profit is expected.

"The record was made simply in the interest of the participants and the public," Schwartz said.
