Spartans Speak

By Terry Dorn

The time has come for me to step down and let another try his wit at writing this column. Whether it takes wit or writing talent I have never been quite sure.

After I'm gone, don't forget to attend our basketball games. Watch good old Coach Corman and Coach Krembas crack their knuckles, pull their hair, and at the end of the game jump up and down to the victory alma mater.

Don't forget to watch for our upcoming baseball, tennis, and track seasons. Don't forget to watch our Scholarquiz team play Anaheim High Saturday on Channel 2. We have already tromped, stomped, beaten, outwitted, out-guessed, and out and out bombarded both West High and Savannah High. It's about time the world realizes just how smart the Spartans are. Especially those Scholarquiz-wiz guys like Mark Abramson, Gary Jung, Lee Pearce, and Paul Satt.

Don't forget to attend the extravaganza of the century Friday, Feb. 3, when the Boys' League presents the an-

Tartar Teen Talk

By Pam Anderson

It's the end of the semester and THS is celebrating with half-day sessions on Thursday and Friday! Final exams ended today and the first semester will end officially Friday.

The backwards "Sweethearts Ball" is fast approaching and the girls are taking advantage of it! Any girl who hasn't asked a boy yet had better hurry because dates are getting scarce. Tickets go on sale tomorrow in the activities office for $2 per couple.

Student body elections were held today and run-offs will be held tomorrow. Support your ASB and vote tomorrow!

CONGRATULATIONS to the winners of Torrance High's first Business Dress-up Day, held Jan. 10. They were Ricki Faulkner and Mark Knudson, both juniors.

Orders for verses, names, or initials are available from Press Club members on campus until Feb. 1.

Want to be cool? Then put in a line—

In the TNT For your valentine! See your name in print in the Valentine issue of the school paper!

Robin Fisher and Brian Lynn have been selected to serve as Torrance High's representative on the District Attorney's Young Citizens Advisory Council. They were chosen by the student council and approved by Dr. Carl Ahee, principal.

THE TWO will participate in seminars, making recommendations for action concerning curfew laws, careers in law enforcement and methods of improving communications between young citizens and police agencies.

A constitutional amendment is now in the making which will allow the Tartar Lady queen and the Tartar Knight first lieutenant a seat on council. This will give these two service clubs more representation and control in student government.

THIS WEEKEND, Boerger's Bombers face a pair of basketball games on our home court. The Rolling Hills game, Friday at 8 p.m., will be in honor of the Gads of the Var-

Music Group Here Sunday

The Ninettes of the First Brethren High School in Long Beach will present a service of music at the Calvary Community Church, 1117 Milton, Sunday evening at 7.

Nursery care will be provided during the service, a church spokesman said.

city basketball squad. See you there, dads! Saturday, in a non-league game, Tartars do battle with the North High Saxons at 8 p.m. Come see the Tartars roll 'em over this weekend!

SOUTH BAY

CITIZEN OF THE MONTH

Ron Schlosser — Good Samaritan — He cared enough to get involved — saving a neighbor's life with mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

A neighbor had a cerebral hemorrhage and stopped breathing. Schlosser responded to a call for help, gave mouth-to-mouth resuscitation and restored breathing, continuing until the doctor arrived. Acting with intelligence and responsibility, he is credited with saving the man's life. People like Ron Schlosser make the South Bay what it is — a great place to work and live.
