

Chosen by Junior Woman's Club For 'Teenage Miss' Title

Miss Sally Dunn has been selected as "Teenage Miss," announces Mrs. Leon Taylor, youth chairman of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, who sponsored a contest among the teenage girls in the local schools recently.

Miss Dunn, 17, daughter of Mrs. Frances H. Dunn, is a senior at North High School. She is editor-in-chief of the school paper "North Winds" and is serving as vice president of the North High Senior Class.

At the school, Sally is a member of the Spanish Club, Press Club, Scholarship Society, International Relations Club, and the Julians and this year is a Julian Princess.

Her hobbies include cooking, sewing, horseback riding, writing, and water skiing. The local girl is planning a career in journalism or teaching following college graduation.

The Teenage Miss contest winner will be entered in the Marina district competition and if chosen will be entered in state competition where the award is a $100 scholarship to the college of her choice.

At the February meeting of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Miss Dunn will be a special guest and will be presented with her trophy.

The local Junior Club is affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina district, junior membership.

Manual Arts Class of '42 Plans Reunion

Vaqueros and Grenadiers, Manual Arts High School graduating classes of 1942 are planning a gala 25th anniversary for the spring of 1967. Anyone from these classes is urged to contact Mrs. Bertha Hatcher Woodside, 1713 W. 239th St., Torrance or Miss Florence Sprenger, 8115 8th Ave., Inglewood.

Class members are asked to let the committee know their interest in the reunion by furnishing names and addresses of other class members with whom they are in contact. Married female members are asked to supply maiden names.

Israeli Fashions Will Spark Hadassah Meeting

Vocational education in Israel, featuring a fashion show of creations from the Alice Seligsberg School in Jerusalem, will be the subject of a series of slides to be presented at the luncheon meeting of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah on Feb. 7, at one o'clock in La Casita, Fashion Square. Mrs. Benjamin Ruby of Torrance will comment on the slides.

Luncheon will be prepared and served by Mmes. Sarah Cole, Sam Habib, Fanny Raskin, and Bernard Wechsberg.

Hadassah supports a comprehensive vocational educational system in Israel in two Louis Brandeis Vocational Centers, one in Jerusalem, of which the Seligsberg school is part, the other in Romema where the Fine Mechanics and Instrument School and the Printing School are to be found. A Rural Vocational Center at Neurim is a separate branch of the vocational program.

Auxiliary Wins Cash On Show

Members of the Auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Department brought home a total of $625 in cash and several handsome gifts following their participation on the television show "Panic Button."

The money will go to the group's philanthropic fund and the gifts will be used as door prizes at future events which include a potluck dinner, spaghetti dinner and the annual Fall Dance.

Members participating were Pat Andersen, Karen Blain, Emily Graboski, Sandra Haas, Carol Hughes, Louise Lamb, Kathy Marshall, Pat Oetting, Donna Richardson, Peggy Siminich, Virginia Stonecker, Barbara Smith and two guests, Sally Firth and Pat Johnson.

The tapes were aired on Jan. 27 on Channel 13.

In all schools a full academic curriculum is required. In addition, girls can study, among other fields, food and restaurant services, library assistants, and fashion design. Israeli fashions have been internationally accepted in the world of high style. Boys can study mechanics, precision instrument design and repair, and tool and die making.

State Reports On Agenda for Dianas Feb. 6

Redondo Beach Dianas will review their work in the community for the past year in preparation for State reports at their Feb. 6 business meeting. They will also vote monetary support to several philanthropy projects of their chairmen. Contributions have already been made to the G. F. Junior Conservation chairman, the California State Extension Fund and to the Redondo Beach Rose Parade Float.

The Dianas, to ensure their children attending suitable and acceptable movies, have been posting at their meetings, reviews of current motion pictures as they appear in the California Parent and Teacher Magazine and the PTA Magazine. They also have available brief descriptions of new books as reviewed by Lucille Moore, the Reading and Library Service Chairman of California Parent-Teacher Magazine.

The Dianas are affiliated with the California Federation of Women's Clubs, Marina District, Junior Membership.

English Professor Zeta Tau Speaker

Dr. Marvin Laser, professor of English, dean of the School of Humanities and Fine Arts at California State College, Dominguez Hills, was guest speaker Tuesday, Jan. 24, at the meeting of the South Bay Chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha social sorority.

The meeting was held at the Rolling Hills Estates home of Mrs. John Hutchison.

ELLIOTT - RITTER
Among the recent brides is Miss Sharon Kay Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Elliott, 24725 Senator, Harbor City, who was married in a 9 o'clock ceremony to Frederick Scott Ritter of Long Beach, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Ritter, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The wedding, solemnized at the Wayfarers Chapel, was conducted by Rev. Robert L. Young. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace and nylon gown fashioned with a lace bodice and full skirt, enhanced with lace appliques and falling into a chapel train. Her elbow-length veil was held by white nylon orchids sprinkled with pearls.

Attired in deep pink gowns, attendants were Mrs. Sandi Hyde, Mrs. Chris Ritter and Miss Joyce Truscott.

Roy Ritter stood as best man and ushers were Charles Elliott, Charles Ritter, Robert Hyde and Tom Prochaska.

Mrs. Mary Truscott was soloist.

A reception was held at the Assistance League in San Pedro and the honeymoon was spent in San Diego.

The new Mrs. Ritter is a 1965 graduate of Narbonne and attends Harbor College. Her husband is a mathematics major at Long Beach State College. The new home is in Long Beach.
