

Harlem Clowns Play at South

A basketball game with a hook shot and showmanship, show!

That is what Torrance fans will see when the Harlem Clowns play a South High faculty team tomorrow night at the school gym. Admission is $1.50 for adults and $1 for students. Proceeds go to the South Letterman Club.

Fancy ball handling, trick shooting, comedy routines, both planned and spontaneous, are featured by the clowns. They have the ability to play great basketball and mix in laughs. The Harlem quint starts the evening's festivities with their famed "magic circle" to the tune of theme song, "Sweet Georgia Brown." Then the razzle-dazzle warm-up and an exhibition of "dunk shots."

When the referee blows his whistle to start the game the Clowns begin their comedy and the official some times is perplexed as to how he is going to get these funsters serious enough for the opening toss-up.

Usually the Clowns open with a quick basket, dunked in after the jump. Then a quick ball handling routine, followed by a few minutes of fast scoring with a bit of comedy thrown in between shots.

Of course there are regular routines — but the impromptu stuff and the ad lib gag are the stock in trade of these natural comedians. And they are not above getting the fans into the act.

Often a youngster, usually a little fellow, is called in to shoot a "free throw." Then again one of the Clowns takes over the referee's job — and his interpretation of the rules and calling of fouls is hilarious.

One of the world's greatest entertainers is an athlete. His name is Stanley Burrell, known to millions of sports fans as Chico, the Clown Prince of Basketball!

Chico, with his sensational hook shot and showmanship, famous Harlem Clowns when they play at South High.

Of course, Chico is the ringleader in the Clowns' pranks. His is the sophisticated type of humor which starts on a slow take then comes on like Gang Busters. Chico wears a perpetual grin — from opening tip-off to final buzzer. He loves his work!

Lakers, Celts Meet Tonight In Los Angeles

Boston's world champion Celtics, currently playing their best ball of the season, take the floor at the Sports Arena tonight determined to bowl over the Lakers and continue their bid to overtake the Philadelphia 76ers. Tip-off is 8:30 p.m.

Boston and Los Angeles, last season's NBA finalists, have staged a series of thrillers so far this season including two nationally televised overtime clashes.

Tonight's clash will again spotlight some of the greatest players in the game today in Boston's player-coach, Bill Russell, Bailey Howell, Sam Jones and John Havlicek, and Lakers Elgin Baylor, Jerry West and Darrall Imhoff.

Cees Extend Win Streak

The West High Cees won two more Pioneer League games to run their unbeaten season record to 8-0.

The lightweights downed Lennox, 81-20, on Friday, and came back to crush El Segundo, 54-28, yesterday.

The Cee's season record is 19-3.

Waves Tangle With Loyola

Last Friday the Pepperdine College Wave basketball team had a chance to place high in the WCAC standings. However, after dropping conference games to USF and Santa Clara, the local squad has been relegated to the role of spoiler.

Coach "Duck" Dowell's crew is 2-5 in WCAC play and 6-13 on the year.

This Friday Pepperdine meets cross-town rival Loyola at El Camino College. Game time is 8 p.m.
