

Home-O-Rama Discount Tickets Now Available

Officials of Thrifty Drug Stores announced today that all their stores throughout the area are now distributing discount tickets to the eighth annual Long Beach "Home-O-Rama," which will be held in the Long Beach Arena from March 1 through 5.

Discount tickets to the popular exhibit are available at no cost and will allow the bearers a 50-cent savings on a $1.50 ticket.

A spokesman for the Long Beach Builders Exchange, sponsor of the annual home show, said hours are from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m. weekdays and from noon to 5 p.m. on the weekend. The huge Long Beach Arena will be transformed into a colorful showroom and will be filled with decorated booths exhibiting an array of products of interest to homeowners and prospective homeowners.

Carl Brooks, general chairman of "Home-O-Rama," stated, "With the spacious Long Beach Arena as a setting, we plan to give our thousands of viewers a look at the finest products available, ranging from interior furnishings to landscaping materials and ideas. Unlike many home shows, "Home-O-Rama" offers ideas for homeowners as well as displaying products."

More than 6,000 square feet of the arena will be devoted to landscaping exhibits that will present many new and practical ideas for beautifying yards and gardens.

Additional features include demonstrations of building trade techniques of apprentices and continuous entertainment.

Sears Appoints Pacific Coast Display Manager

Frederick W. Buckler was named Pacific Coast territorial store planning and display manager for Sears, Roebuck and Co. effective Feb. 1.

Buckler, 51, a native of Grantham, England, joined Sears display department in the Long Beach store in 1939. He served in the Sacramento store in 1941 and became display manager in the Tacoma, Wash., store in 1942.

He joined the Los Angeles headquarters offices in 1946 as a fieldman and served in turn as display manager in the Compton (1949) and Los Angeles-Boyle (1953) retail stores.

In 1958, Buckler became display manager of the Los Angeles District retail stores and in 1964 was named assistant territorial store planning and display manager, a position he has held until the present.

Buckler and his wife, Virginia, reside in Haeftenda Heights.

Navy Lt. (JG) Thomas A. Palmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan T. Palmer of 2610 W. 154th St., Gardena, is helping the U. S. Pacific Fleet Force SERVPAC celebrate its 25th anniversary this month, while serving aboard the ammunition ship Pyro.
