Weaving Workshop Planned

A program to instruct youth workers on the techniques of weaving has been scheduled in Torrance. County Supervisor Burton W. Chace said today.

The workshop is set from 9 a.m. to noon on March 31 in the Joslyn Recreation Center, 3335 Torrance Boulevard.

"The County Department of Parks and Recreation will staff the workshop," Chace said.

The purpose of the course, which will be given at 13 other workshops in other sections of the County, is to illustrate the type of weaving which can be taught to youngsters. Chace encouraged volunteer workers from the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, social groups, and churches to participate.

The stress will be placed on weaving without a loom.
