

HERE IS YOUR IRISH HAT

These members of the South Bay Auxiliary to the Pharmaceutical Association, don their St. Patrick hats and offer hats to guests as they invite the public to attend their annual Shamrock Ball next Saturday evening at the Airport Marina Hotel. They are from left, Mmes Fred C. Reese, Douglas H. Ingle, president, and Clarence E. Brauer. Proceeds will be used for pharmacy scholarships. (Press-Herald Photo)

Scholarship Benefit

Shamrock Ball Set March 18

With St. Patrick's Day on the horizon, members of the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association and the Women's Auxiliary are busy with plans for the annual Shamrock Ball to be held this year on Saturday evening, March 18 at the Airport Marina Hotel, 8601 Lincoln Blvd.

The cocktail hour beginning at 7:30 p.m. will be followed by dinner at 8:30. Members and guests will dance until 1 a.m. to music furnished by Irving Green and his Moonlighters.

Proceeds from this annual benefit are used as a Pharmacy Scholarship Fund which assists worthy students enrolled in the School of Pharmacy at the University of Southern California. This is the group's only fund raising event of the year.

Committee chairmen for the gala Shamrock Ball are Mrs. Douglas Ingle, president of the Women's Auxiliary; Mr. Iwao Mochidome, president of the South Bay Pharmaceutical Association; Mrs. Fred Reese, general chairman; Mr. Shannon Hauser, prize chairman; and Mrs. Jack Fenske in charge of decorations.

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MARCH 12, 1967

B-1

TAKE THE REINS

New officers, who will direct activities of the Arts and Craft Club for the coming year, are from left seated, Mmes William Childs, president and Karl Mohler, immediate past president. Standing, from left, Mmes. Charles Outcalt, vice president, Charles Head, secretary and Jacob Miller, treasurer. (Press-Herald Photo)

Shamrocks and Fashions

Auxiliary Benefit

"A wee bit of Erin" will transform the General Rosecrans VFW Hall, 1822 W. 162nd St., in Gardena, into a festive setting when the Women's Auxiliary stages its "Shamrocks and Fashions" benefit on St. Patrick's Day, March 17 at 8 p.m.

The hall and tables will be decorated in an elaborate Irish decor, according to Mrs. Alice Bennett, auxiliary president. Mrs. Margaret Grimes is serving as general chairman of the event and is being assisted by Mrs. Robert Johnson.

Spring's newest fashions will be provided by a Gardena salon and will be modeled by auxiliary members and Miss Marie Bray, Miss Gardena. The new lines, colors and fabrics of the season will feature the three As, attractive, appropriate and adaptable. The models' hairstyles will be done by a Gardena salon.

A large number of door prizes will be awarded throughout the evening. The major prize is an all-expense paid three days and two nights in Las Vegas. After the fashion parade, auxiliary members will serve refreshments.

Tickets, which will be available at the door, may be secured in advance by contacting Mmes Betty Adams, ticket chairman; Shirley Springer or Alice Bennett.

Proceeds from the event will go to the auxiliary's many philanthropies of which aid to veterans and their families is their major project.

THE WEARIN' O' THE GREEN

Fashions in a profusion of shamrocks is an evening planned by General Rosecrans Auxiliary for St. Patrick's Day, March 17, at the Post Hall. Committee members, in a happy Irish mood as they prepare for the party, are, Mrs. E. J. Mercereau, left, and Mrs. Charles Fuller, right, wearing shamrocks in their hair, as from left in back, Mmes Dale Justice, James Allgood, tipping Irish derby, and Lillian Connell look over arrangement of table decorations. (Press-Herald Photo)

Peter Cottontail Sets Scene

For Easter Breakfast, Egg Hunt

HUNTING HIGH AND LOW

Children of the Dianan's get ready for next Saturday morning's Easter Egg Hunt to be staged at the Redondo Park beginning at 9 a.m. Just where eggs can be hidden is getting attention from these youngsters, from left, Steven, Susie, and Deborah Croles, James and Christy Williams and Paul and Thomas Shortridge. A special prize will be given for the golden egg found. The Dianan's will also serve an Easter breakfast. (Press-Herald Photo)

The Easter Bunny will be busy hiding eggs the night before the Redondo Beach Dianan's annual Easter Breakfast and Egg Hunt at Redondo Beach Park. The fun filled day will start at 9 a.m. on Saturday, March 18.

Mrs. Philip MacBride, food chairman, says breakfast will lead off the morning activities with a menu of assorted fruit juices, scrambled eggs, sausage, coffee cake, milk and coffee.

Dozens of colored eggs will be hidden around the park and the children will be divided by age groups to start the hunt. Some of the eggs will get special prizes. These eggs will be wrapped in gold paper. Prizes will also be awarded to the children finding the most eggs. Working with the games, prizes and egg hunt will be Mmes. Stanley Duffill, Gordon Watt and Dino Ruffoni.

Mrs. Jerry Hobert reports that table decorations will consist of large papier mache Easter bunnies and eggs. These will be painted by Scout Troop 878, Den 6 of Portuguese Bend. Mrs. William Watson is general chairman for the event.

The Dianan's are affiliated with the California Federated Women's Club, Marina District, Junior Membership.

Xi Zetas to Hear Talks At Meeting

Mrs. Pearl Kurtz of the Civil Defense Office in Gardena will speak on "Personal and Family Survival" at the meeting of the Xi Zeta Lambda chapter of Beta Sigma Phi on Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Phillip Chowning.

The cultural program "Natural Enjoyment" will be presented by Mrs. Helen O'Neil of Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Clarence Turner, ways and means chairman, has planned a novel project within the chapter called "Traveling Baked Goods Basket." Each member will bake a special delicacy which will be purchased by a sorority sister.

A candlelight welcoming ritual will be conducted for Mrs. Patricia Dawson, Torrance, and Mrs. Charles Melodge, Westchester. Mrs. Dawson is returning to active membership in Xi Zeta after a leave of absence. Mrs. Melodge has served as sponsor for the South Bay Area Council for several years and has been an honorary member of Beta Sigma Phi. By accepting the invitation to join Xi Zeta Lambda, she assumes responsibilities of active membership.

Arts and Crafts Club

Installs At Dinner Meet

The Arts and Crafts Club, one of Torrance's oldest social clubs, installed its new officers for the coming year at a dinner held at the Indian Village recently.

A pink and white color theme was used in decorating. Mrs. Ruth Mohler conducted the installation following dinner.

Mrs. Florence Childs assumed the presidency. Installed with her were Mmes. Charlotte Outcalt, first vice president; Virginia Head, secretary; Selma Miller, treasurer.

New chairmen appointed were Mmes. Hazel Ward, devotions, Fay Parks, gifts; Fred Cook, publicity; Oscar Fossum, sunshine, and Helen Carpenter, welfare.

The installation was followed by the exchanging of Secret Pal gifts. Attending the installation dinner were Mmes. Maybel Banks, Melvina Beckwith, Rolive Bever, Helen Carpenter, Florence Childs, Vivian Cook, Lelia Everly, Hazel Fossum, Vena Hamilton, Virginia Head, Ruth Hardin, Ruth Kilgore, Zelma Miller, Sybil Moffitt, Ruth Mohler, Charlotte Outcalt, Addie Parks, Fran Snodgrass and Hazel Ward.

The March meeting of the Arts and Crafts club will be held at the home of Mrs. Fay Parks.

Local CDA Member

Appointed to State Office

Court Our Lady of Victory 1344, Catholic Daughters of America, has been honored by the appointment of Mrs. Wesley Muzik as State Chairman of World Missions by Miss Shirley Godfrey, State Regent of Sacramento.

Mrs. Muzik is a past Grand Regent of the Court and has served as District Deputy, Archdiocesan Chairman and State chairman of World Missions. At the National Convention last July in Boston, she received a National award for her work in the Missions, and a Navy Medal for "Operation Handclasp." She has been a member of the board of Camp Teresa Pines for two years.

MRS. WESLEY MUZIK Honored

The local woman is active in St. Lawrence Martyr Parish, serving for two years as a board member of the Women's Guild. Also she has been active in civic affairs and was treasurer of the Hollywood Riviera Business and Professional Association and two years president of the Riviera Moose Women.

Mr. and Mrs. Muzik and their four daughters, Sherie, Thelma, Valesta and Hiley make their home in the Hollywood Riviera.

Make Convention Plans

Delta Zeta Sorority South Bay Alumnae Chapter will meet Tuesday, March 14, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Willis Bliss, 201 South Dianthus, Manhattan Beach. Mrs. John F. Thomas of El Segundo will be co-hostess.

After a social hour, during which refreshments will be served, Bert Snow, director of public relations of the community-sponsored and supported educational television station KCET, Channel 28, will address the group on "Our Visual World."

An important business meeting will follow the program. Plans for the participation of local members in Delta Zeta's Province XV Convention will be completed. The convention will be held at Mission Inn in Riverside, April 1 and 2.

Any South Bay Delta Zeta Alumna who is unable to attend the March meeting and who wishes to attend the convention should contact Mrs. Jess Sevy of Palos Verdes Peninsula, president.

Mrs. Herman Heaton on Palos Verdes Peninsula will be taking reservations for the South Bay Panhellenic benefit luncheon to be held at the Los Verdes Country Club on Wednesday, April 5.

South Bay Panhellenic Council will this year grant scholarships to three graduating South Bay high school senior girls entering a four year college this fall. Delta Zeta, alumna unable to attend the benefit luncheon, are urged to make a contribution to the scholarship fund by contacting Mrs. Herman Heaton.