Newlywed C. M. Deardens At Home in Long Beach

Miss Jennifer Lorraine Gagne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Gagne, 4028 184th St., Torrance, became the bride of Craig Monty Dearden in a recent ceremony at the Torrance Second Ward, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Conway Dearden, 22708 Juniper Ave., Torrance.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of white satin and Chantilly lace. The long Chantilly lace train was attached at the shoulders. A pearl crown of petaled lace held her four-tiered veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids with pearl-sprinkled streamers.

Miss Virginia Gagne, in mint green, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids, in deep pink gowns, were Misses Margaret Gagne, Chriss Neally, and Connie Dearden. Jim Smith served as best man and ushers were Peter Reynolds, Len Damerow and James Ryan.

Bishop Floyd Gibson officiated at the marriage. Mrs. Betty Engilman played the nuptial music and accompanied Phillip Barretta, soloist.

A reception was held at the church hall and the honeymoon was spent in Las Vegas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dearden are both graduates of North High School. Mrs. Dearden is employed by A and D Associates in Los Angeles. Mr. Dearden is attending Long Beach State College, majoring in clinical psychology.

The new home is in Long Beach.

Emblem Club To Initiate Elk Members

The initiation planned by the Gardena Emblem Club for next Thursday evening, March 16, has been tagged "very special" since those to be initiated are husbands of the Emblem Club members and members of the Elks Lodge 1919.

The initiates will be given honorary membership cards, showing the appreciation for their support of the Emblem Club.

In the year 1966, Emblem Club members drove 1,900 miles in service for the Elks and donated $680 to Elk projects.

A potluck supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. prior to the initiation.
