

Oldt-King Nuptials To Be Solemnized in May

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oldt, 2022 W. 180th St. Torrance announce the May wedding plans of their daughter, Sue, and Lt. Phil King.

The bride-elect is a graduate of North High where she was a member of the Julians, a service club, and was active in the FM radio station KNHS. Miss Oldt is a junior at California Polytechnic, majoring in chemistry. Her engagement was announced at a candlelight ceremony at Montecito Hall on campus where she is resident assistant.

Lt. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip King of Torrance, was graduated from North High. He attended El Camino College and is serving as a commissioned officer in the United States Army in Military Police. Lt. King is taking advanced training at Fort Gordon, Augusta, Ga.

Juniors In Whirl Of Leadership Workshop On April 14

Fifteen members of Torrance Junior Woman's Club are assisting Mrs. William Ritchie, chairman, in the club's participation in the annual Cancer Crusade Drive. The Torrance Gardens area, central Torrance, will be canvassed by Juniors.

"Shifts for Sale" are awaiting Torrance Juniors at the home of Mrs. William Ritchie, April 11, 8 p.m. Arnel shifts in spring styles and colors will be modeled and sold to members and guests in this fund-raising project. The profits will be used for the Torrance Junior Woman's Club philanthropic projects, according to Mrs. William Bruchfield, ways and means chairman. A dessert will be served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

Today, Torrance Junior Women will be busy tending their "shifty shifts" booth at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia, as members participate in the Thieves' Market project sponsored by Torrance Woman's Club. At 8 p.m. Torrance Juniors will welcome the American Field Service students to the regular monthly meeting at the clubhouse. An interesting panel presentation will be given by the students, an annual appearance Juniors anticipate. A monetary donation will be presented to the American Field Service representative, in appreciation of the international affairs projects promoted by the American Field Service organization.

Church Women United will stage a Leadership Training-Caravan Style Workshop at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church, 24027 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita, on Friday, April 14, at 7:30 p.m. The theme, "Share Life Anew" will be presented by State Board Officers, Mmes. James J. Farley, Moses Boozer and Eleanor Roberts.

Worship period will include "Moments of Meditation," an introduction to the "Inside Story," a modern translation by J. B. Phillips.

Information will include an Explore-Unit study. There will also be a literature table with a display of books and materials related to Church Women United.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the evening. For further information, Mrs. Eldon Fish, president of the Torrance-Lomita Council, may be called.

Women Will Hear Talk On Mission

Rev. Ray W. Hear will speak on "his mission," at the luncheon meeting of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Women's Association on April 18.

The meeting will begin at 11:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the Redondo Church. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. Al Amiran and Mrs. Donald Huey. Nursery care for small children will be provided.

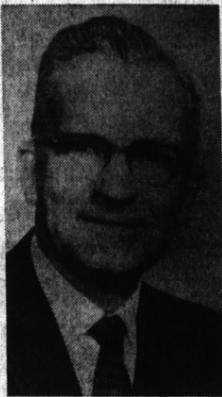

SPRING FASHIONS FOR CHARITY

Colorful new fashions will be paraded amid myriads of spring blossoms when the Welcome Wagon Club presents its Spring Fashion Show at the Los Verdes Country Club at 1 p.m. tomorrow. Members will model and proceeds will go to the Head Start Program. Making last minute show plans are, on landing, Mrs. Ronald McAlpine, modeling; on the stairs, Mrs. James R. Wells, also a model; and in the foreground, Mrs. John Munroe and Mrs. Frank Nordoff, discuss plans. Mrs. Anita Zarfas may be called for tickets.

Speaker Slated For B&PW Meeting April 17

William M. Fisher, Southern California Gas Company Consultant Speaker, will address the Torrance National Business and Professional Women's Club at the regular dinner meeting Monday, April 17, 1966. The meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. at Filippone's Restaurant at Calle Mayor and Anza in Torrance.

WILLIAM FISHER
... Consultant

Fisher, former Eastern Division Commercial Manager for the utility firm, entitles his address "What Would Grandfather Say," an inspiration challenge designed to stimulate worthwhile projects in the community emphasizing moral and spiritual values.

A past president of the YMCA, Fisher has served on the National Council, National Board and the Area Board for the organization.

Industrial and civic interests have made Fisher a member of the Pacific Coast Gas Association, chairman of the San Bernardino County Juvenile Justice Commission and past president of the San Bernardino County Chamber of Commerce. In addition, he is a past president and past lieutenant-governor of Kiwanis International and chairman of community campaigns such as Red Cross, YMCA capital funds and the Community Chest.

Mrs. Flora Hameetman, newly-installed president of the Torrance National Business and Professional Women's Club, will announce the chairman, selected at a recent executive board meeting, who will serve the local club for the 1967-68 club year.

The chairman for the evening is Mrs. Edwin Kirkpatrick and reservation may be made by contacting her.

Twins Club Will Hear Dr. Mittman

Monthly meeting of South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will be a coffee social at the La Rambla Presbyterian Church in San Pedro, Monday evening April 17, at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Jerry Steinbrecher, president, will conduct the business meeting. Mrs. Fred Casstevens, program chairman, announces that the guest speaker for the evening will be Dr. Harold Mittman from Harbor General Hospital. Dr. Mittman has done extensive research on twins and is especially interested in the age group from 15 to 19.

Mrs. Tom Leonard, Harbor City, ways and means chairman, will be in charge of the annual bake sale to be held at the meeting. She will be assisted by Mrs. Lewis Eldredge, Torrance.

The monthly exchange table will also be featured with Mrs. Samuel Plon, Torrance, presiding.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Layton Carr, Palos Verdes.

Dianas Plan Initiation

Redondo Beach Dianas will conduct formal initiation ceremonies for provisionals, Wednesday, April 12, at the Flush Horse Restaurant in Redondo Beach.

A 7 p.m. cocktail hour will launch activities for the affair. Speaker will be Mrs. Dale Newman, Area C vice president.

Ceremonies will be conducted for Mmes. Donald Condie, Gregory Grime, Jerry Hebert, Ron McAlpin, Dino Ruffoni, Wayne Smock, Joe Washko and Bruce Zelus.

Local Wesleyan Guild To Host District Meet

Dr. J. Irwin Trotter, superintendent of Long Beach District Methodist churches, embracing a total of 49 Methodist churches and membership of more than 30,000 Methodists, will be the speaker at Wayside Methodist Church, 25904 Cayuga Ave., Lomita, on Saturday, April 22.

The occasion will be the Long Beach District Wesleyan Service Guild District Spring meeting beginning at 10 a.m., with luncheon served by the Women's Society of the host church at 12:30 p.m. and reconvening for the afternoon session when Dr. Trotter will be featured speaker.

Members of the Wesleyan Service Guild of First Methodist Church, Torrance, will be in charge of a coffee hour at 9:30 to precede the morning business meeting. Mrs. Arthur Anderson, treasurer of Jean Liles Wesleyan Service Guild of Wayside church will be at the registration table. Registrations will be received by her at 1833 W. 253rd St., Lomita, until Friday, April 15.

Miss Ruby Wilson, Long Beach District secretary, will preside at the morning session for business agenda, reports of Guild presidents, election of officers and a memorial service for departed Guild members. Sharing the chancel with the speaker during the afternoon program will be the Rev. William Kendall, pastor of the host church, who will be soloist during meditations. Installation of officers for 1967-68 will close the meeting.

Miss Wilson, presiding officer, anticipates representatives to be present from nearly 25 Guilds, whose membership is composed of the employed women of Methodist churches, an auxiliary to the Woman's Society of Christian Service.
