

New Carson County Fire Station Formally Opened

Formal dedication of the new Carson Fire Station at 127 W. 223rd St., bringing the most modern emergency equipment possible to this area, was held last week.

Participating were Supervisor Kenneth Hahn; Sak Yamamoto, president of the Carson Chamber of Commerce; and County Fire Chief Keith Klinger.

The station houses Engine Company 36, the latest type of fire pumper, and Rescue Unit 36, which carries resuscitators, advanced first aid equipment, and stretchers and is manned by expert personnel trained in latest life-saving techniques.

IT ALSO IS the headquarters for Battalion 7 of the County Fire Department and a battalion chief who commands an area including the Carson-Dominguez area, Palos Verdes Hills, Lawndale, and the adjacent unincorporated areas.

The new station replaces the oldest station in county service at 404 E. Carson St., which had become too small to handle the requirements of this growing area, Supervisor Hahn said.

"We are proud of this latest addition to our roster of 105 stations of the County Fire Department," Chief Klinger said.

Classes in Investments To Be Held

Investment fundamentals will be topic of two four-week lecture courses to be offered in this area by Dean Witter and Co. The classes will begin next week.

Sessions will be held on consecutive Mondays at the Push Horse Inn, 1700 Pacific Coast Hwy., Redondo Beach, and on consecutive Wednesdays at the Hunting Horn Restaurant in the Peninsula Center.

All lectures will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be conducted by account executives of the brokerage firm. The courses are free.

in the County, responding to 1,811 emergency calls last year.

Also located at the new facility is Supervisor Hahn's field office which is open on Wednesdays from 3 to 4 p.m.

At this field office residents can discuss matters of local interest with members of Hahn's staff and save a lengthy trip to downtown Los Angeles.

Hahn and Klinger invited all residents of the Carson-Dominguez area to visit the new station on Fire Service Day, Saturday, May 6, a statewide observance to acquaint citizens with the emergency services available in the area.

"We hope that by visiting this station, every member of the family will become more conscious of the need for fire safety," Hahn said.

The station houses a modern engine company and a fully equipped rescue unit.

County Acts to Revoke Bar License in Carson

Steps to revoke the license of a restaurant and bar at 1221 W. Torrance Blvd. in the Carson area have been initiated at the request of Los Angeles County Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn acted after Pitchess, in a letter to the Board of Supervisors, revealed a total of 58 police incidents and some 40 arrests have been recorded at the establishment during the 26 months.

Pitchess said 15 of the incidents involved felonies.

Hahn also has asked that a copy of the arrest record be sent to the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Board to determine "why the liquor license has not been canceled before now."

The establishment has county licenses for public eating, as well as for a phonograph and two game machines, which expire June 30, 1967.
