

Torrance Hospital Auxiliary Installs

ASSUME LEADERSHIP

Auxiliary to the Torrance Memorial Hospital will be directed during the coming year by these new officers installed last week. They are from left, front row, Mmes. Mildred Wilson, Leroy B. Mc-

Cabe, John Barrington, Jack Rice, George Post and Robert Sleeth Jr. Back row, Mmes. Ernest B. Butt, Joe Helphand, C. Thomas McGraw, Melvin J. Wells, Chalmers Strayer and Laurence Brown.

(Press-Herald Photos)

GIFT OF APPRECIATION

Mrs. Jack Rice, newly-installed auxiliary president, representing the membership, presents Mrs. James Kimble, retiring president, with a gift. Mrs. Kimble was also given a past president's pin and a publicity scrapbook of auxiliary activities during her year.

SERVICE TO OTHERS

Mrs. John E. Popovich, right, the auxiliary member chalking up the highest number of hours served in assisting at the Torrance Hospital, more than 3,000, was paid a special honor by the membership at the auxiliary luncheon. Here, she is given a silver bowl by Mrs. James E. Kimble, president.

Tribute to Volunteers

Pinkie Puppets, synonymous with Torrance Hospital Auxiliary's work with children, were enhanced with pink carnations to decorate the tables at the Installation Luncheon held at the Redondo Elks Club Tuesday.

A punch bowl preceded the luncheon after which new officers were installed and members were paid recognition for their service hours.

Assuming the presidency of the Auxiliary for the coming year was Mrs. Jack Rice. Installed to serve with her were Mmes. John A. Barrington, George Post and Jay R. Stroh, vice presidents; Robert S. Sleeth Jr., recording secretary; Mildred Wilson, corresponding secretary; LeRoy McCabe, treasurer; and Thomas McGraw, parliamentarian.

Chairman installed were Mmes. C. A. Strayer, baby photo; Joseph Helphand, gift shop; Laurence Brown, maternity teas; Charles Limbird, Candy Strippers; Melvin Wells, reception desk; Ernest Butt, Pinkie sewing.

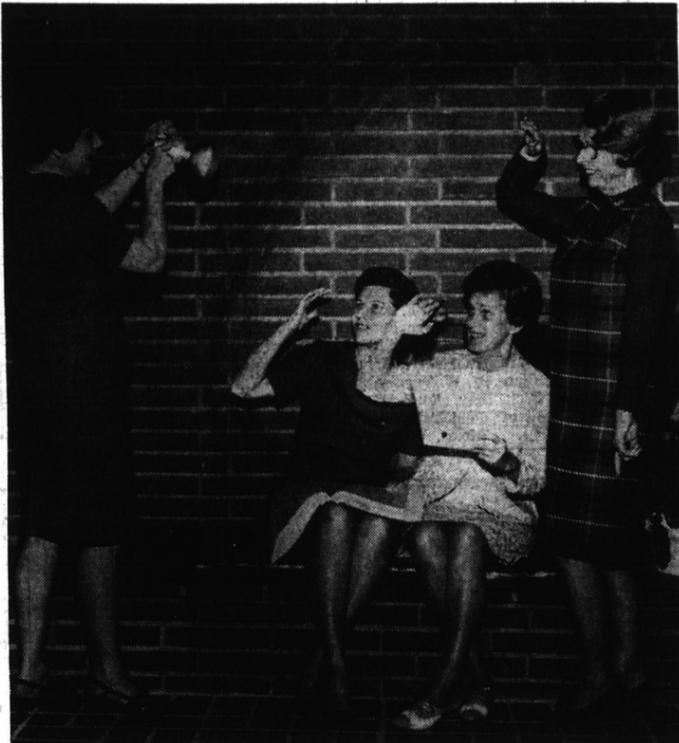

Members receiving pins for 500 service hours were Mmes. James Dutton, Kenneth Miller, R. M. Norris, Melvin J. Wells, and James Wilkes. Presented with 200-hour pins were Mmes.

Ted Duncan, Veronica Gordon, Henry R. Jean, Naomi Mauk, Harry Rushfeldt, and Louis Trani.

Members contributing 100 hours of service were given certificates. They were Mmes. William Coleman, Charles Limbird, Raymond Martin, William McDonald, Thomas McGraw, Wallace McLaughlin, C. A. Strayer, Harold D. Walsh and Mildred Wilson.

Carnation corsages were given to Mmes. Howard Fields, N. F. Jamieson and James K. Lees, life members; John Beeman, John Melville, Eugene Cook, Ernest Butt, and James Kimble, past presidents.

Special guests of the auxiliary were Monsignor Daniel Collins of the St. Lawrence parish; Leonard Ensminger, hospital administrator; Mrs. Boris Woolley, president of the Hospital Board; Mr. George Post, board vice president; Mmes. George C. Anderson, president-elect Southwest District Auxiliary to Los Angeles County Medical Association; Joseph Fischer, president, South Bay Hospital Auxiliary; and Arthur Grayson, president, Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary.

SPOTLIGHTING REUNION

South Bay Alpha Gamma alumnae in a final session of preparing for the sorority's International Reunion Day to be held at the Beverly Hills Room of the Century Plaza Hotel on April 22, carry out their "Spotlight" theme. Pictured with the "spotlight" is Mrs. Richard Kincaid, president-elect, focusing on Mmes. Clayton Elm, area council secretary, Allen Smith and Otto B. Willett, alumnae.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Southern California Alpha Gammas

Announce Reunion Day

Alpha Gamma Deltas of Southern California representing 13 clubs and the USC and UCLA alumnae and undergraduate chapters will celebrate the sorority's International Reunion Day April 22 with a luncheon and program in the Beverly Hills Room of the Century Plaza Hotel. Theme for the day is "Spotlight on Undergraduates of Alpha Gamma Delta" with registration set for 11 a.m. The reunion day is being observed throughout the United States and Canada on this date, commemorating the sorority's founding at Syracuse University, May 30, 1904.

Highlight of the day will be a fashion show with undergraduate models and commentators. Featured will be members of USC and UCLA campus honorary women's service groups: Anchors, Sabers, Angel Flight, Chimes and Amazons wearing their auxiliary uniforms. One of the models will be Miss Karen Kalstrom, Palos Verdes Estates, who is a member of the UCLA Sabers.

MRS. L. GOODKNIGHT
"Alpha Gam of Year"

Miss Beverly Crooker of Miraleste will receive a scholarship award for her Fall semester's studies at USC. Each scholarship winner will receive a silver punch bowl cup engraved with her name which will be added to the permanent set of each undergraduate chapter.

Special honor will be paid to Mrs. Logan H. Goodknight, Long Beach, who has been named "Alpha Gamma Delta of the Year" recognizing a long line of outstanding achievements in community, state and civic affairs.

As a national philanthropy, Alpha Gamma Delta supports the Easter Seal Campaign and the Society for Crippled Children and Adults. The Los Angeles Area Alumnae Coordinating Council of Alpha Delta has donated two station wagons to the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County.

Assisting with IR Day arrangements is Mrs. Robert Dankanyin, Manhattan Beach, who is handling reservations for the entire event. Mrs. Richard Kincaid of Palos Verdes Estates, president-elect of the South Bay Alumnae Club, announces that the local group will be well represented at the event. She invites any alumnae in need of transportation to contact her.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

APRIL 19, 1967

B-1

Engagement

BARBARA ROBINSON
Robinson-Edwards

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Robinson of Tustin, formerly of Torrance, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Lynn, to Gerald Thomas Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edwards, 1548 West 216th St., Torrance.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Narbonne High School and is now employed by the Department of Employment in Santa Ana.

Her fiancé, also a Narbonne High graduate, attended Long Beach State College. He is now serving in the United States Army and in July will attend Officers Candidate School at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

A June wedding is planned by the couple.

Harbor Hospital Auxiliary

Installation April 20

History will repeat itself at the Installation Luncheon to be held by the Auxiliary to the Harbor Hospital aboard the Princess Louise on April 20.

Mrs. Joseph Jay will again assume the auxiliary presidency, accepting the gavel, which she released two years ago, from Mrs. William Hoag, Jr. Others to be installed with Mrs. Jay are Mmes. M. J. Kendall, H. E. Shields, Esther Ayers, vice presidents; H. M. Lewis, recording secretary; J. C. Betts, treasurer; and F. E. Romi, corresponding secretary.

Special entertainment at the luncheon will be provided by the Las Vecinas Chorus. Mrs. Dolly Byny will conduct the installation.

FANTASY IN FASHION

Nativity Mothers have announced that their second annual fashion show, to be staged on two evenings, will be held May 10 and 11 at the Nativity Annex, beginning with cocktails at 7 and the fashion parade at 8 p.m. Mrs. Lawrence Kutas, show chairman, announces that members will model directed by Mrs. Thomas Haire. Mrs. William Hoffman is chairman of entertainment. A peek preview of the new fashions is staged by from left, Mrs. Jerome Gomen in the 1967 version of the "flapper" dress, Mrs. Raymond Hetty in a costume suit; and Mrs. Walter Cook in loungewear. Grand door prize is a $100 due bill on Sears Del Amo and an expense paid family trip to Disneyland. Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any of the chairmen.

(Press-Herald Photo)