A luau theme will be used for the luncheon and decorations will include a lei for each person.

HAMILTON
Hamilton school will have a Science Fair and open house at their April PTA meeting. Awards will be given to Kenney Gough, Joelle Gettinger, Steve Olson and David McMillen.

President, Mrs. L. Townsend will honor her board with a May luncheon to be held at the home of Mrs. Esereys.

MEADOW PARK
The annual PTA Kindergarten Roundup will be held on Wednesday, April 26, and Thursday, April 27, in the nurse's room at Meadow Park School. Each new Kindergarten pupil will have an opportunity at this time for a health check, meet the school nurse and principal, and parents will be given information concerning the Kindergarten department.

Meadow Park Band and Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Simon, will present a "Musical Extravaganza" on Wednesday, April 26, 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. Refreshments will be served by members of the Meadow Park PTA immediately following the program.

SAM LEVY
Sam Levy PTA met on Tuesday, April 11, at Meadow Park School cafeteria to elect officers, discuss and adopt by-laws. Twenty-eight members signed the Charter and Sam Levy PTA became the 39th Chartered PTA in the Torrance Council. Mrs. Perry Baker, Torrance Council president, installed the following officers: Mmes. Owen Griffith, president; Ormel Duke, first vice president; Thomas Koenig, second vice president; Tom Akiyama, third vice president; Guy Sherod, recording secretary; Marvin Schiff, secretary; Milton Reaser, historian; T. E. Augenbaugh, treasurer; Jack LeResche, auditor; Charles Ansell, parliamentarian; and Dr. William Forrest, advisor.

CRENSHAW
Mrs. Richard Gilham, ways and means chairman, has announced a "strictly for fun" paper drive will be held on April 28, with all proceeds going to a free movie and popcorn treat for all Crenshaw students.

In conjunction with the annual school Science Fair, Crenshaw PTA presented Mr. D. Argabright, an engineer of the TRW Systems Corp., at the association meeting April 19. He discussed the Lunar Landing Module program and presented a film on that subject.

Science exhibits from all grade levels were on display, as coordinated by Mr. Charles Meyers, science instructor. Ten delegates have been chosen to represent the association at the Spring Convention in Long Beach.

The association approved $100 for the purchase of books for the PTA library, which is open every Wednesday for all students, under the direction of Mmes. Doral Longacre and James Bounds, library chairmen.

NEWTON
"Understanding the Narcotics Problem" is the topic for Newton PTA meeting April 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Tsusaki, treasurer; Harold Drevno, historian; and Mr. Leslie Berger, auditor.

These officers will be installed at the May 18 PTA meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Riviera students will present their annual "Spring Musicale" at the May meeting. The flag ceremony will be conducted by Camp Fire Girls 207.

At Lake Cachuma
Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moffitt returned last evening from Lake Cachuma where they had spent three days visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, formerly of Torrance.

FEATURED AT 'FAMILY LIVING DAY'

Discussing the topic "Community Responsibility of Parent and Child" at a family living day observance of the 33rd district PTA at Torrance High School Thursday were, from left, Sid Dvoskin, county probation department; Dr. Donald Wilson, director of teacher education at USC and member of the Torrance board of education; Mrs. Edward Kemp, past president of the 33rd District PTA; and Rev. Clifford Tierney, pastor. They discussed the role of the home, church, school, and law enforcement agencies in family life education during a day-long program on family education.

33rd District PTA

Stages 'Family Living Day'

More than 200 representatives of 33rd District PTA attended "Family Living Day" observances at Torrance High School Thursday, April 13. The all-day program was presented by the district PTA's department of parent and family life education.

Keynote speaker was Dr. Ralph Eckert, director of counseling and guidance, Riverside County Schools, who discussed the topic "Family Education, Parent and Child."

Following the presentation, a panel discussed "Community Responsibility of Parent and Child," stressing the points of view of home, church, school, and respect of law and order. Panelists included: Mrs. Edward Kemp, Dr. Donald Wilson, Rev. Clifford Tierney, and Sid Dvoskin.

Rounding out the morning program was a talk by Mrs. Joyce Cutter, home economist for the Southern California Edison Company, who discussed the topic "More for Less" and Mrs. Edward Linsley, an attorney, who stressed the importance of writing wills and familiarizing oneself with estates.

During the afternoon the district guests, who represented 21 PTA Councils toured the Educational Materials Building and the high school science fair.

Printed information on parent education was distributed. Chairman was Mrs. James Orr, district vice president and past president of Torrance Council.

Attending the matinee performance of "The Man from La Mancha" in the new Ahmanson Theater at the Music Center Saturday were Mmes. Herman Mitchell, Howard Schott, Delbert Thomsen and Walter Claus.

First Aids for Spring Fever
Spring Fever Marks Club's April Dance

"First Aid for Spring Fever" was the theme of the Las Fiestas April dance last Saturday evening.

The committee, in the role of "consulting practitioners" for the evening included Mmes. and Misses E. E. Clayton, D. T. McClimen, C. M. Tuzine, Don, and Mmes. Phillip Hollman and A. N. Pomeroy.

Club members gathered at "Mae's Best Home," the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. McClimen, 2402 W. 222nd St. for a cocktail party.

They then traveled to the Queen's Kitchen in downtown Torrance to dance. This was a program (prescription) dance with the ladies holding the cards.

Las Fiestas' next affair will be an Installation Dinner Dance at the Harbor Lights on May 20.

In Santa Barbara

Mr. and Mrs. Gil Derouin and Mrs. Hazel Ward spent a recent weekend in Santa Barbara. They joined their sons, Pat and Mike Derouin, students at San Jose State, who were in Santa Barbara for a Volleyball tournament. On Sunday, the trio drove to Lake Cachuma for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, formerly of Torrance.
