

ARMED FORCES

Seaman Rct. Daniel B. Clauri, USCGR, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Walter R. Clauri of 2411 Hill Lane, Redondo Beach, has enlisted in the United States Coast Guard for four years.

He will report to the Coast Guard Recruit Training Center in Alameda, Calif., for eight weeks of basic training.

Marine L/Cpl. Steven H. Gasper, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gasper of 22638 Marjorie Ave., is in Chu Lai, Vietnam, serving as a member of Marine Squadron (MAB)-12, First Marine Aircraft Wing.

Richard E. Leatherdale, USN, son of Mrs. Marian Miller of 1411 190th St., took part in the underway Naval training exercise "Blue Coral" off the Southern California coast, as a crewmember of the store ship USS Procyon.

Blue Coral, the second major fleet exercise conducted this year by the U.S. First Fleet, refined the techniques of surface-to-surface and surface-to-air warfare, as well as detection of subsurface craft. Some 21 air units and 25 ships participated in the week-long exercise.

Marine Pvt. Gerard P. Bellaart, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Bellaart of 372 Paseo de Gracia, has completed four weeks of individual combat training at the Marine Corps base at Camp Pendleton.

Second Lieut. Phillip H. King, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip G. King of 16907 Fay-smith, completed an officer's course at the Army Military Police School, Ft. Gordon, Ga., April 25.

During the 9-week course, the lieutenant was trained in administration and communications within the Military Police Corps and received extensive instruction in military law. He also learned military police camp and station operations.

Trefor A. Smith, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Smith of 4223 Artesia Blvd., was promoted April 18 to Army specialist four at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz., where he is assigned to the Preventive Medical Unit at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz.

T. SGT. RAY STAUBLEY Gets New Assignment

Air Force Recruiter Reassigned

T. Sgt. Ray Staublely, who has served as an Air Force recruiter and office manager in the Torrance and Inglewood Air Force recruiting offices for the past four and one half years, has been named as a nurse and medical specialist assistant to the Surgeon General of the Air Force.

Sergeant Staublely will be conducting activities relating to the acquisition of nurses and medical specialists for the Air Force throughout the greater Los Angeles area.

Sergeant Staublely said he will be available day or evening, including Saturdays and Sundays, to discuss the Air Force nurse and medical specialists programs with interested persons or groups. Appointments can also be obtained by addressing written inquiries to him here at 1616 Cabrillo Ave.

Airman 2/C Wayne A. Syverson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Syverson of 2519 Graham Ave., Redondo Beach, has been decorated with the U. S. Air Force Airman's Medal at Nakhon Phanom Royal Thai AFB, Thailand.

Airman Syverson was cited for voluntarily risking his life to enter a munitions storage area threatened by explosion.

The airman, a fireman, was on crash alert duty when a parachute flare ignited in the reventment-enclosed area. Disregarding the danger from nearby munitions, Airman Syverson unhesitatingly helped extinguish the fire and prevented a possible disaster at the Southeast Asia installation.

Airman Syverson is a 1962 graduate of Aviation High School.

Army Sp/5 Clifford T. Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Nichols of 1551 W. 213th St., was awarded a safe driving certificate April 13 while serving with the 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment near Bamberg, Germany.

Specialist Nichols received the award for driving military vehicles for one year with no accidents or traffic violations. The 22-year-old soldier is a tank commander in Troop G of the regiment's 2nd Reconnaissance Squadron. He embarked the Army in October, 1963.
