Two Summer Sessions Scheduled by College

Schedules of classes for the six-week and four-week summer sessions at El Camino College are available in the admissions office at the college, Leo M. Christian, dean of admissions, said today. The six-week session is to begin June 21 and end Aug. 2 and is open to any person who is 18 years of age or a high school graduate. The residence requirement will not apply to this session, Christian said.

Registration dates for the six-week session are June 19 for students who complete the present spring semester at El Camino and June 20 for new or re-entering students.

Registration dates for the four-week session will begin Aug. 7. Students may enroll in four units of classes. Registration for all students will be held Aug. 4.

Placement tests, if required, for either of the two summer sessions must be completed five school days prior to registration. Reservations for these tests may be made in the counseling office.

order to make a grade of 'C' must expect to devote a minimum of two hours of study for every hour spent in class. Further information regarding registration procedures is available in the admissions office.

Newspaper Honor Won By Youths

Eight members of the Knight Life staff at Bishop Montgomery High School have been awarded memberships in Quill and Scroll, international honor society for high school journalists. They include Sandy Baglio, Jim Garbanati, Maureen Reimer, Brian Campbell, Patty Campbell, Kathy Brierley, Jeanne English, and Linda Redgrift. A ninth youth, Jim Stoelker, was awarded membership for his work during the 1965-66 school year. Brian Campbell has been named editor-in-chief of Knight Life for the 1967-68 school year. He succeeds Stoelker. Staff members were honored last weekend at an awards banquet.

Orchestras To Present Concerts

The El Camino and Harbor college orchestras will combine forces Sunday, June 4, for a concert in Seahawk Center on the Harbor College campus. The concert, to be conducted by Daniel Remeta, is the final event of the month-long Harbor College Fine Arts Festival. A second concert will be presented Tuesday, June 6, in the recital hall on the Harbor College campus. El Camino director James Mack will conduct the June 6 program. There will be no charge for admission.

Retired Persons Sought

A variety of opportunities for retired persons to assist others exists at the Volunteer Bureau, Mrs. Jack C. O'Donnell, said today. Mrs. O'Donnell said the Volunteer Bureau has frequent calls for "capable, experienced people with mature judgment" to spend some time in youth guidance and crime prevention centers in the community. Persons who have some spare time and are interested in the work should contact her at 2008 W. Carson St., room 211.

Wins Election

Jerry Lynd, of 2035 W. 184th St., has been elected treasurer of Beta Theta Chapter of Alpha Epsilon Rho, a national honorary broadcasting fraternity, at California State College at Long Beach.
