INSTALLED BY CANDLELIGHT

New Committee Installed At

Fiestadores Dinner-Dance

From the invitation, written in code, 'til the climax of the evening when new officers were revealed, the "secret" prevailed at the monthly dance of the Las Fiestadores Club held Saturday evening.

It was no secret that the "biggest" evening of the year would begin with a cocktail party at the San Pedro home of Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Jones.

Hosting the pre-dance party with Dr. and Mrs. Jones were the J. A. Eisenbrandts, R. J. Tripitts, J. E. Kimbles and Henry J. Backlund.

The dancers then drove to the Starlight Roof of the Lafayette Hotel in Long Beach to enjoy dinner and dancing by candlelight.

The Dave Lovesey Trio furnished music for dancing. Carrying out the "secret" theme, guests' hands were stamped with "secret" marks and were read under a black light.

Highlight of the evening came when the new officers were revealed. Members of the retiring committee installed their successors by snuffing out a candle and lighting another which was presented to the new officers.

Directing the social activities of the Las Fiestadores Dance club for the coming year will be Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Halloran, presidents; Messrs. and Mmes. Clyde Anderson, first vice presidents; C. D. Virden, second vice presidents; D. T. Coleman, secretaries; and Robert Sleeth, Jr., treasurers.
