

Dog Obedience Class Scheduled in Torrance

If you want your dog really to be "man's best friend," take advantage of the Torrance Recreation Department's 11th Summer Children's Dog Obedience Class opening Saturday at Walteria Park, 3855 242nd St. Any dog, six months of age or older, may be enrolled in the class providing the trainer is 10 to 14-years-old and accompanied by an adult. Registration for the seven Saturday sessions will be taken beginning at 10 a.m. this Saturday. The fee for the entire class is 50 cents. Equipment necessary for the class will be discussed at the first session, according to Roy Smith, conductor of the class. Dogs will be trained to respond to basic commands of heeling, stopping, sitting and lying. Airman 3/C Donovan J. Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Nielsen of 2220 Denker Ave., has been selected from training in the Defense Information School at Ft. Harris, Ind.

After 10 weeks of instruction, he will be stationed at Mather Field, Calif. He is a graduate of Narbonne High School. His wife, Gail, is with him in Indiana.

CHARLES BUTTERFIELD
New Deputy

Name New District Leader

Charles Butterfield has been appointed district deputy of the South Bay Area Knights of Columbus by state deputy Albert S. Gonsalves. He was formally installed with 75 other district deputies of the state at the orientation conference held last weekend at Fresno.

He will be district deputy for St. Gerard Council, Torrance, of which he is a member; Los Crusados, Redondo Beach; St. Patrick, Wilmington, and Angels Gate, San Pedro.

Butterfield was grand knight of St. Gerard Council for three years, and held the offices of deputy grand knight, treasurer, and trustee. He was also faithful navigator for the John J. Shea General Assembly, the Harbor Area Fourth Degree organization.

He was accompanied to Fresno by his wife, Mary, who is active in Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America.

The Butterfields have been residents of the area for 21 years. They are the parents of seven children and have 15 grandchildren.

USC Gives Journalism Workshop

Pamela Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Anderson of 914 Cranbrook, recently attended a two-week journalism workshop for high school students at the University of Southern California.

Joining 13 students from the Southern California area, Miss Anderson attended classes from June 26 to July 7 at the university.

The workshop, sponsored by the USC school of journalism, emphasized news and feature writing and page editing and copyreading. Highlighting the program were trips to Universal City Studios and Disneyland.

Miss Anderson is a student at Torrance High School and she has been selected as the feature editor for the high school newspaper.

County Gives $100,000 for City Streets

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn reports a county allocation of $100,000 to assist the city of Torrance in the maintenance of the city's Select System of Streets during fiscal year 1967-68.

Hahn said these funds will be used by the city in keeping its streets in the best possible condition for motorists.

The Supervisor has long been a leader in providing the best and safest traffic facilities for his district and approves the allocation of county gas tax money to individual cities to keep highways safe and clear.
