Area Family Named Home Show Hosts

Dr. and Mrs. Jack W. McLaughlin of Redondo Beach and their family of nine children have been named "Home Show Family of the Year" and will preside as official hosts of the 1967 Los Angeles Home Show.

The show, to be held at the Pan Pacific Auditorium, opens tomorrow for an 11-day run which ends July 23.

Dr. McLaughlin, 48, is deputy superintendent of the Redondo Beach Sister City Committee, vice president of the Rotary Club, and a past president of the Redondo Beach Coordinating Council.

The educator also is active in the South Bay YMCA, the Boy Scouts, Eagles, and American Legion and served as general chairman of the annual Cancer Drive. He is a veteran of World War II, having served in the Far East Theatre with the Army Air Corps.

Mrs. Betty McLaughlin, in addition to being an active housewife and mother, has found time to earn both a bachelor's and a master's degree in education. She also is active in a number of church, educational, and philanthropic groups.

The McLaughlin children are: Jack Jr., 25, a principal at Yosemite Village School and also a holder of a bachelor's and master's degrees; Mike, 23, a principal at Greeley Hills School and also a holder of both bachelor's and master's degrees; Thomas, 21, a graduate of Cal State, Long Beach, currently teaching at University of California at La Jolla while earning his doctorate degree in chemistry; Kim, 16, a tenth grader at Redondo Union High School; Dennis, 14, an eighth grader at Hillcrest Elementary School; Kathy, 11, in fifth grade at McCandless School; Shannon, 7, a first grade student at McCandless; and twins Kevin and Karen, 2½.
