Lemens To Attend Elks Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Don Lemen, Janet and Lyle, will leave International Airport on July 13 for Omaha where Janet and Lyle will visit an uncle and aunt until July 20, when they will fly on to Chicago to join their parents. Mr. Lemen will represent the Torrance Lodge 1948, Order of the Elks at the annual convention of the Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks to be held in Chicago from July 16 to 20.

After the convention, the foursome will go on a sight-seeing trip to the east, including Niagara Falls, Boston, New York and Washington, D. C.

The Torrance convention delegates will be headquartered at the Hilton in Chicago. Approximately 15,000 Elks and their families are expected to attend from every state in the Union, Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, Guam and the Philippines.

Highlight of the business session will be plans for the Order's centennial celebration in 1968.

The BPO Elks was organized in New York City Feb. 16, 1868. Today, it has over 1,400,000 members in 2,100 lodges, making it the largest strictly fraternal order in America.

WSCS Picnic Tomorrow At Local Park

Women's Society for Christian Service of the Torrance First Methodist Church will hold a picnic at Torrance Park, Arlington Avenue and Lincoln, tomorrow beginning at noon.

Games for adults and children will be directed by Mrs. Richard Wolverson and prizes will be awarded. At 1 p.m., at potluck lunch will be served with coffee and punch prepared by Mrs. Russell Paxton.

The picnic is sponsored by the WSCS board and takes the place of the regular monthly meeting.

Victor Club Has Benefit Summer Party

Victor Women's Club held its annual salad luncheon recently at the home of Mrs. William Dale, president, 5205 Emerald Street, Torrance.

Members and their guests began arriving shortly before noon and were led to the patio-pool area where a delightful social hour was held. After lunch there were activities including swimming, bridge and Yahtzee.

Proceeds from this affair will be used to support the Victor Women's Club minor philanthropies throughout the coming year.

Eta Mu Give Shower For Mrs. Ben Sady

Members of the Eta Mu chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha brought surprise wedding gifts for their hostess, Mrs. Ben Sady when they met at her home recently.

It was announced at this meeting that Eta Mu had won an educational award at the State Convention held in Palm Springs recently. At the convention, Mrs. Otis Bry, member of the local chapter, was installed as state first vice president.

The Eta Mu chapter held a Mexican dinner and a rummage sale recently to raise money for their charities.

Club Members At Auditions

Representatives of the Torrance Woman's Club, CFWC, attended the Gertrude Purple Gorham program auditions at the Ebell Club in Los Angeles last week to select talent for their 1967-68 program. Attending were Mmes. Richard Dorothy, program chairman, Robert E. Moffitt, president, and F. M. Shaw, recording secretary.

Mrs. Frederick Cook was hostess to the Arts and Crafts Club at its regular meeting with Mrs. Florence Childs, president, conducting.

After the business session, guests spent the evening working on their crafts, some making straw flowers to decorate handbags, others working on a new design with rick-rack to edge pillow cases or dresses and several members worked on decorating handbags with jewels.

During the social hour, guests were served refreshments on handpainted china made by the hostess.

Attending were Mmes. Maybel Banks, Melvina Beckwith, Eloda Barkdull, Addie Parks, Rolive Rever, Ruth Hardin, Helen Carpenter, Charlotte Outcalt,

Barbecue For Booth Workers

Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and their husbands, who worked on the Juniors' Fireworks booth were entertained at a barbecue on Monday, July 3 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vroman.

Twenty couples enjoyed

Ruth Mohler, Hazel Ward, Hazel Fossum, Florence Childs and co-hostesses, Virginia Head and Vivian Cook. The Arts and Crafts Club will meet on July 21 at the home of Mrs. Melvina Beckwith with Mrs. Ruth Hardin as co-hostess.

the outdoor barbecue. A decorated cake honored Mrs. Jack Thayer, chairman of the Fireworks booth project.

Mrs. Vroman was assisted by Mmes. Douglas Hedde, Jack Thayer and Richard Spaan.

The affair will be an outdoor barbecue. The social committee of the Xi Theta Xi met recently at the home of Mrs. Charles Ray to schedule the year's social events.
