

Two Cars Collide; Trio Hurt

A two-car collision on Paseo de Las Tortugas Saturday sent three persons to South Bay Hospital and two incinerated autos to a junk yard.

Injured in the accident were Harold Parsons, 61, of 5009 Paseo de Pavlon; his wife, Manila; and Richard Coryell, of 8751 Reefteen, Cypress. All three suffered cuts and bruises on the head and arms except Mrs. Parsons who was admitted with possible internal injuries and a broken jaw.

A car driven by Larry Andrews, 23, of 5205 Paseo de Pablo, who was uninjured, and one driven by Parsons, collided after Andrews' vehicle skidded approximately 90 feet near a curve in the road, police reported.

THE ACCIDENT, in the 4200 block of Paseo de Las Tortugas, was compounded when both autos burst into flame. Both were completely destroyed.

The Parsons vehicle collided head on with the Andrews vehicle as they were traveling west on the street. Both autos were stopped on the Parsons' side of the street when police and firemen arrived.

Police also reported that Andrews could not produce a valid drivers license
