It isn't every day that the RTD makes a new film, especially one that is both informational and entertaining. The Transit District has produced one of the finest films have ever seen: a 26-minute color and sound documentary with the title "Public Transportation — Who Needs It?" Ralph Story, star of his own popular TV show, Ralph Story's Los Angeles, has been ideally cast to tell the complete story of public transportation. If you have a club or group needing a program, call Jim Abernethy at 749-6977, extension 293, for details and tell him Artie Dee told you.

On many of RTD's lines, you will begin to see some rather unusual buses. These buses will have a bulge on the top near the rear of the bus that looks like the metal man went berserk at the factory. Never fear, these are only the new air conditioned buses we have been looking forward to for so long. What would be better than a cool, relaxing ride home from work or shopping? No driving, no traffic, no heat, just pure comfort! Look for them — they could be on your line.

When was the last time you went to the beach? No less than 15 RTD lines go to some beach or beach city. RTD serves 17 beach cities, miles of state beaches, many fine restaurants, transportation facilities to Catalina by air or boat, board walks, shore line parks, small boat slips, harbor tours, and beach hotels all await your visit. It is an interesting paradox, when you realize how many good folks living right here in Southern California have not been to the beach in years. RTD is a good way to enjoy all these goodies, and the time to start is now.

Q. What is the simplest way to get to Disneyland and San Francisco from Hermosa Beach (Sepulveda and Artesia)? Mrs. M.B.

A. The 102 line to downtown Hermosa, then the 51 line to 6th and Main, walk one block east to the new terminal and catch the 56 for Disneyland and Greyhound to San Francisco.

Q. How do I get to Disneyland and Riverside from Greyhound station in Long Beach? I'll be coming from Redondo Beach. R.J.C.

A. Walk one block north to 2nd and Long Beach Boulevard and catch the 124 line to Disneyland. To go to Riverside, catch the 59 line from the station.

Q. Please tell me how often the bus goes to Los Angeles from Artesia and Hawthorne, and can I use a monthly pass on that bus? Mrs. P.L.G.

A. It would depend on what time of day you were interested in, but 20 minute service is a mean average. Yes, you can use your monthly pass as part payment on your fare.
