

Elementary Schools Plan Science Fair Exhibitions

Torrance schools will sponsor the third annual Elementary School Science Fair Thursday and Friday, May 2 and 3, at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance

Blvd., according to Phillip Korman, curriculum consultant and chairman for the event.

An estimated 200 entries are expected to be submitted by students of the district's 35 elementary schools. Accompanying each exhibit will be a written report.

Entries will be in the biological, physical and earth sciences, with awards going to the top three winners in each group.

CRITERIA used by judges to determine winners will include: creative ability, scientific thought, thoroughness, technical skill, knowledge of student, and project report.

Displays will be set up Wednesday, May 1. Public viewing will take place from 9 a.m. to noon Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Friday.

Student tours will also be conducted during the public viewing hours.

Judging will be held from 1 to 3 p.m., Thursday, May 2, and awards will be presented Friday at 7 p.m.

SUPPLEMENTING student exhibits will be a lobby display of new science materials from the Educational Materials Building used by the school district to support the science program.

The public is invited. There will be no admission charge. Members of the science fair committee include: Robert Allen, Ronald Hall, Dr. Lloyd Jones, Larry Miller and Ernest Thom.

Former Governor to Roast Unruh at Press Club Event

Former California governor Edmund G. Brown will be a guest of honor at the Greater Los Angeles Press Club's seventh annual "Headliner of the Year" awards banquet Friday, April 26, in the Biltmore Bowl of the Biltmore Hotel.

Brown is himself a former Headliner, honored by the Press Club in 1963 as California's top newsmaker in 1962.

Honored this year, as the state's top newsmaker in 1967, will be Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh.

The Headliner banquet is open to the general public. Tickets, $25 each, are available through the Press Club, 600 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles.

The Press Club is a professional organization comprising 1,200 members representing all areas of communications—newspapers, magazines, television, radio, advertising, and public relations.

Education Astrology Unit Forms

Formation of a local chapter of Education Astrology, Inc., of Los Angeles has been announced by Mrs. Katalin Williams, who was named president of the group.

The group, to be known as Education Astrology - South Bay, will meet on the third Thursday each month. A meeting will be held April 18 at the Indian Village Restaurant.

The purpose of the group is to offer public education programs in the "right application of astrology," Mrs. Williams said.

Carl W. Peterson, works engineer at Bethlehem Steel Corp.'s Torrance fabricating works, has retired after 43 years on the job. Peterson has been with the firm since 1923 and has been works engineer since the Torrance facility was opened in 1955.

YOUTH BAND DAY . . . Ronald McDonald, representing McDonald's, joins Drum Major Rocky Westlake and majorette Dru McCabe to ask Torrance residents to "Climb on the Youth Band Wagon" next Tuesday. Profits from the three McDonald's locations in Torrance on that day will be given to the Torrance Area Youth Bands, Inc., to help finance a trip to Sacramento for the opening of Cal Expo '68. McDonald's locations here are 1452 W. Carson St., 17305 Crenshaw Blvd., and 5019 Torrance Blvd.
