'Oliver' To Open In May

"Oliver," the latest British import to Long Beach (after the Queen Mary) is a musical comedy that the Long Beach Civic Light Opera will present starting May 9. Based on Charles Dickens' "Oliver Twist," the musical tells the story of an orphan's wanderings through the underworld of London in the early 1800s. Starring in the title role of "Oliver" is a delightful young lad, Ray Dams, who at the age of 9 already has an impressive list of theatrical credits.

Jones, Robert McCaman, and Audrey Share. A chorus of 25 boys portrays Oliver's companions, both in the orphanage, where his adventures begin, and in Fagin's gang of pick pockets.

Glorious Food," "Who Will Buy?" and "You've Got to Pick-A-Pocket, or Two." The production is directed by James Brittain and choreographed by Cris Timmons. Jack Kroesen is musical director.

Tickets are on sale now at the Civic Light Opera box office, 518 E. 4th St., Long Beach.

"OLIVER" is a tuneful show with such songs as "As Long As He Needs Me," "Consider Yourself," "Food,
