

Around the World

with Stan Delaplane

First spring travelers writing home say, "European jitters over the value of the buck seem to be over. I had no trouble cashing dollar travelers' checks."

(During the gold crisis, they weren't even taking dollar bills.)

"The British pound may be devalued, but the New York airport banks don't seem to know it. The papers say the pound is $2.40. The airport bank charged me $2.46."

(That's too rough to cut. London hotels only charge $2.44 tops. And you do much better in a London bank.)

"The cab charged us 3 pounds, 10 shillings going into town from London airport and we paid only 3 pounds going back."

(Beyond a certain mileage limit, London cabs can forget the meter and charge what they like. London airport is just beyond that limit. The right fare, if you argue, should be about 2 pounds, 10 shillings. But how's a new arrival to know that?)

"Just what are the free ports in the Caribbean? And what are the best buys?"

Every island except Puerto Rico seems to have a free port. They sell imported goods tax free and duty free to visitors who intend to take them out.

They all sell about the same things. French perfumes. Swiss watches. German cameras. Japanese transistors. Scotch whisky. English woollens. Dutch Curacao goes heavy on Delft china. You find more Danish silver in the Virgin Islands.

"... any help for the student traveler?"

I put a girl student, 21, onto U.S. National Student Association, 265 Madison Avenue, New York City. I was surprised at the free package she got. A student identity card giving her free entrance to museums and student clubs. Big reductions on trains, boats, student charter flights. Reductions on theater tickets, watches, jewelry—even dry cleaning.

If there's a student around your house, but this book:

"The Student Traveler, Work Study, Travel Abroad." $1.95 and packed with solid information. Same address, same association.

"... how we might best plan a trip by car in the U.S."

Best I've seen are the Chevron trip kits. Go into any Standard Oil station and pick up a travel request card. Fill in where you want to go. They route you by mail with maps, scenic routes, points of interest. Best of all, it's free. (They hope you'll buy some gas from them while you're on tour.)

"Will we have any difficulty driving in Mexico?"

I shouldn't think so. Roads are good and well-marked. Better learn a few Spanish signs like "puente angosto"—narrow bridge. And they mean two cars at once are going to be squeezed into one.

Going through towns there's a lot of one-way. The directional arrows are painted on the building walls at corners. A traffic policeman facing you means stop even if he doesn't have his hand up. If he's in profile, go.

If you're in doubt about highway information, do NOT ask the man on the street. Chances are he hasn't been fifty miles from home in his life. But you flattered him by asking. He's not about to admit he doesn't know. He'll tell you something. Mostly wrong. (Ask in gas stations. Or truck drivers.)

"As college students, we both play guitar and would like to hitchhike and play around Spain..."

Get another country. Guitar playing is hardly a novelty in Spain. Poor hitchhiking country, too. If you're in lorgish hang or beards, better get a gun or Marine trim. European frontier police—especially Spain—are getting edgy about beards, hair and guitars.

"If we buy things overseas and have the stores ship them are they reliable?"

I've never had any trouble except from Mexico. You pay duty on everything shipped to your house, but this book:

Hayward Called 'Most Responsible' Candidate

The importance of electing a young, responsible man to Congress was called to the attention of the voters of the 17th Congressional District by Mrs. Frank MacIvor, coordinator of the David K. Hayward-for-Congress campaign. Hayward, she said, "is such an individual... one who is capable of winning the election and filling the vacancy in Congress from the 17th District."

"He is a capable, dedicated individual," Mrs. MacIvor said. "He has the necessary qualities to win re-election again and again, and develop the necessary influence and seniority to assure the accomplishment of major projects in the 17th District as well as the award of major contracts in the district."

"He has displayed a responsiveness to the people of his district and has made outstanding contributions to the improvement of the district," she said. "During his seven years of service as councilman, he has fulfilled the needs of the people he represented by sponsoring significant drainage, street, and sidewalk improvements. Mrs. MacIvor pointed out, "HE HAS had beautification of the district as his objective," she noted. "As a result of his efforts, many trees and shrubs have been planted along commercial and residential streets. "It is David Hayward's intention," she said, "to use the knowledge and experience gained by working with representatives of surrounding cities and with the people of the 17th District to satisfy the total needs of the district. "Dave Hayward would be the most responsible candidate and the most responsive to the needs of the people of the 17th Congressional District," she concluded.

Stops Tormenting Rectal Itch

Exclusive Formula Promptly Stops Itching, and Relieves Pain of Piles in Most Cases

New York, N.Y. (Special): One of the most tormenting afflictions is the burning itch caused by piles. It's most embarrassing during the day and especially aggravating at night. "Scratching" only makes the condition worse. No matter what you've tried without results—here's good news. A scientific research institute discovered a special medication which has the ability, in most cases—to promptly stop the burning itch, relieve pain and actually shrink hemorrhoids. Tests conducted on hundreds of patients by leading doctors in New York City, in Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center proved this so. And it was accomplished without narcotics or stinging astringents of any kind. The secret is Preparation H®—an exclusive formula for the treatment of hemorrhoids. There is no other formula like it! In case after case, Preparation H promptly stops the burning itch, relieves pain—as it gently reduces the swelling. Preparation H also lubricates, gently soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form. No prescription is needed.
