

PTA

The

Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Ralph Gring

Attention! All PTA Chairmen

Beginning this week, all press releases from PTA Units of the Torrance Council must be sent to Mrs. Stephen Sampson, 4210 Carmen St., Torrance, who will be serving as the new press chairman. All releases must reach Mrs. Sampson not later than Monday so that the column may be compiled and sent to the Press-Herald by Tuesday afternoon to appear in the following Sunday edition.

ARNOLD

Arnold School PTA will hold its last meeting of the year, "Paving the Way to New Journeys," on May 21 at 3 p.m. Mrs. Jean Burdette, past president of Meadow Park PTA, will install the officers for 1968-69 as follows: Mmes. Carl Campbell, president; John Conway, Eddie Blanks, William Fisher, Arthur Griese, vice presidents; Virgil Stidham, recording secretary; Fred Stone, corresponding secretary; Don Wise, treasurer; John Pretty, historian; Don Untereiner, auditor; Kenneth Holmes, parliamentarian; and Mr. Ron Hall, advisor.

EVELYN CARR

May 22 will be the last PTA meeting for the 1967-68 year of Evelyn Carr PTA. The Pledge of Allegiance will be led by Cadette Troop 72. Mrs. Madeline Brooks, leader.

A Student Fashion Show will be presented by the seventh and eighth grade girls and a Shop Display by the seventh and eighth grade boys.

Historian Mrs. John Buzze will give a report, also there will be installation of officers for the coming year.

COLUMBIA

Columbia PTA will meet May 21 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. "Enter New Officers" will be the theme with the installation of new officers for the 1968-69 school year.

Mrs. Kenneth Poiry will be the new president. Serving with her will be Mmes. Walter Witte, Kenneth DeWalt, vice president; Silvia Gallegas, recording secretary; Jack Stewart, corresponding secretary; Monroe Wiles, treasurer; Charles Breaker, historian; and John Goldsmith, auditor. Mrs. Joseph Kettering will be the installing officer.

Mrs. Walter Witte, historian, and featured chairman for the evening, will present the program, "Columbia in Review," and the graduating students from the school will participate.

SAM LEVY

Installation of next year's executive board will be held at the May 21 meeting. Dr. William Forrest, principal, will install the following officers: Mmes. Jean Alli, president; Donald Morgan, James McCoy, Shago Sato, vice presidents; Guy Sherod, recording secretary; Sylvia Skowneck, treasurer; Marvin Schiff, corresponding secretary; and Miss Syra Gold, historian; Mr. Ben De Berry, auditor.

Two coffees were held for parents of the graduating class, at which time parents of students who will attend Torrance High met Dr. Carl Ahee, principal, and saw films of Torrance High School. Mrs. Thomas Koenig was the hostess. Mrs. Guy Sherod hosted in her home the parents of students who will attend South High and introduced Dr. John Lucas, principal.

HOWARD WOOD

Howard Wood PTA will hold their last meeting of the school year on Wednesday, May 2, at 7:30 p.m. Miss Getzkow will install the executive board for 1968-69 and Mrs. Donald Darrow will give the historian's report with the assistance of Mmes. Wesley Coleman, Allen Haney, James Hinds, Paul Crossman, Carl Kidoo, Jr., Chester Beene, and William McKenna.

Mrs. Dwight Morrison will serve refreshments with the sixth grade mothers as hostesses. Past presidents have been invited and will be introduced.

YUKON

At high noon on May 22, the USS Yukon will set sail at the South Bay Church of God carrying Yukon Elementary PTA annual luncheon given for the retiring board and room mothers.

This year's theme, "Bon Voyage," is in honor of the 1967-68 president, Mr. John Tucker, a teacher at Yukon, who will leave for a one year sabbatical cruise around the world when school ends in June.

A NIGHT OF "WINE AND ROSES"

Dinner at 8 followed by an evening of dancing has been planned by the Auxiliary to the Torrance National Little League. The "Get-Acquainted" affair will be held Saturday evening, May 25, at the Retail Clerks Hall, 25949 Belleporte, Harbor City. Finalizing plans are, from left, Mmes. Edward Hoffman, decorations chairman; Larry Bowman, team mother; and George White, dance chairman. Over 50 door prizes will be awarded, among them a portable color television set. (Press-Herald Photo)

CLOWNS, GAMES AND FOOD

Schoolgrounds at Torrance Elementary will "come alive" on Saturday, May 25, at 11 o'clock when the PTA stages its annual Carnival. Games for young and old will afford amusement and all kinds of food will be on sale. In the carnival mood are, from left, Mrs. Terence McMurray, publicity chairman, clowning for Johnny Robison, 6; Steve Dull, 12, holding a poster; Cyril Levine, vice-principal; and Cathy Carter, 11. All parents and friends are invited to come to the carnival. (Press-Herald Photo)

South Bay Eds Stage Annual Brunch Today

Educational Office Employees from the school districts in the South Bay will join with fifty-three of their school districts throughout Los Angeles County in honoring their "Bosses" at the thirtieth annual May Brunch today in the Embassy Ball Room of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles. Approximately 1,000 Educational Office Employees and School District Administrators are expected to attend this outstanding event of the year. It is an ideal way to begin National Educational Bosses' Week. Guest Speaker Norman R. Nichols, Architect, A.I.A., president of the architectural firm of Nichols, Ostrander and Smith, has chosen as his topic "Space-The World Around Us" which will deal with our physical environment as it relates to architecture and urban planning. Music will be provided by the Mark Keppel Acappella Choir, Alhambra City School District.

B&PW Club to Hear Speakers, Vocalist

Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club will hold its monthly dinner meeting Monday evening at the Indian Village restaurant. A social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner at 8 p.m.

An exceptional program, with two speakers and a soloist will follow dinner. Mrs. Robert Hoxworth, World Affairs chairman, invites all men and women of the area to attend. She may be called for reservations.

Guest speakers are Harold Garvin and Richard Bernard, whose topic will be "Is It Possible to Negotiate a Meaningful Peace in Vietnam?"

Garvin is an associate professor of political science at Harbor College. Bernard is an instructor in United States history and a counselor at Harbor College.

Entertaining will be Miss Diane D. Dragotto, vocalist, a resident of Torrance and a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School.

Miss Dragotto has studied voice, drama and dance for over five years and is presently studying with Carolyn Trojanowski Chean, Hollywood vocal coach.

Meets Monday

Mrs. Earl Williams, new president, will conduct the business meeting of the Rho Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi on Monday, May 20, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Tony Gugliotta.

The program will be reports by half of the members on an amateur topic in which they excel.

At Bishop Montgomery

Festival Under Way

"Moods in the Making," something to please both the eye and the ear, is the theme for Bishop Montgomery High School's 11th Annual Art Festival held in conjunction with the Glee Club's Spring Concert today from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in the School's Art Rooms at 5430 Torrance Blvd.

The combined event, under the direction of Sister Stephen Joseph, C.S.J., art director, Sister John Elizabeth, C.S.J., music teacher and Keith Williams, band master, is sponsored by the Mothers Club. Art works, created by the students during the year, are on exhibit and available to the public for purchase.

Judges for the art show are Mr. and Mrs. Caesar Hernandez. South Bay artists, Miss Susan Cantwell, teacher at Redondo High; and Randy Harwood, art major at Long Beach State.

Mothers Club members working as committee chairmen are Mmes. Nicolas Humting, president; Sy Durham, general chairman; Sharon King, decorations; Clarence Van Lingen, publicity.

Student chairmen are Misses Eileen Hall, exhibits; Mary Hamilton and Linda Hansen, general co-chairmen.

Mothers Club members and students will act as hostesses and serve refreshments.

The Glee Club and Mixed Chorus will perform. The public is invited to attend and tickets may be secured at the school office.

AN EVENING OF MAY MADNESS

Torrance American Little League Auxiliary has chosen the Redondo Eagles Hall for the scene of its "May Madness" Spring Dance on Saturday evening, May 25, from 9 p.m. until 1:30 a.m. Don Marino and his band will furnish dance music and the main door prize will be a trip for two to the Hacienda in Las Vegas. Symbolizing the surprises in store are committee members, from left, Mmes. Richard Andrew, Thomas Perkins, William Orndorff and John Pretty. Tickets will be on sale at the door and the public is invited. (Press-Herald Photo)

Needlework Guild

Gathers at Hospital

Members of the Peninsula Volunteers Needlework Guild will gather in the Assembly room of the Harbor General Hospital at 1 p.m. on Monday, May 20, for a luncheon to begin their Spring Meeting.

A short business meeting will follow during which Mrs. Frederick Geisel, president, will call for progress reports from the various section presidents.

Mrs. Geisel will then introduce Frank Crase, director of volunteer services for the hospital, who will speak on the role of his volunteers in providing for many needs of the patients. He will also tell something of the uses made of the garments and bedding provided each year by the Needlework Guild.

Following the meeting, a tour conducted by volunteers has been arranged to give the Needlework Guild members an idea of the services provided by Harbor General and thus become better acquainted with this important facility, one of the thirteen that they help through their donation.

Members have been asked to bring with them discarded magazines of current interest as well as paper back books that provide light reading for the patients.

Bridge Party

Mrs. Lee Allen entertained her club at a desert-bridge Wednesday evening at her home, 20527 Osage Ave.

Dessert was served followed by the games in which Mrs. Robert Waddell held high score and Mrs. Nila Moore, second.

Other guests were Mmes. Lloyd Buettgenbach, Richard Beecher, Max Webber, L. H. Voien, and J. E. Nichols.

Mrs. Beecher will be the club's next hostess.

ON MOTHER'S DAY

Patients at the Del Amo Gardens Convalescent Home, 22419 Kent St., were wearing colorful straw flower pins made and presented to them, as remembrances on Mother's Day, by members of the auxiliary to the Torrance Fire Department. Arriving for the presentation are members, Mrs. Ronald Weiner, holding a box of pins, while Mrs. Carl Marshall and Mrs. Bruce Smith, president, show the pin-ons to Jack Saylin, administrator. (Press-Herald Photo)

PARENTS
A school savings stamp program teaches early thrift... and citizenship!

Enroll Now Fall Semester
Hawthorne Christian Schools
13600 S. PRAIRIE AVE.
HAWTHORNE, CALIF. 90250
Call 679-2591

LUZIER COSMETICS
830-0629

P.O. Box 843
Wilmington, Calif. 90744

GUARDS FOR ANY OCCASION
• INDUSTRIAL
• BUSINESS
• RESIDENTIAL

328-5514

MODERN INVESTIGATION & SECURITY PATROL, INC.
1013 W. CARSON, TORRANCE

NOW OPEN 5 BIG DAYS!

Wed., Thurs., Fri., Sat. & Sun.
8 A. M to 3 P. M.

SWAP MEET—RUMMAGE
BRING THE CARNIVAL BRING YOUR MOTHER-IN-LAW
Buy! Sell! Trade! Swap!

Roadium Drive-in Theatre
2500 Redondo Beach Blvd., Gardena

Any way you figure it...
THE FINEST WELCOME TO TORRANCE IS WELCOME WAGON

A visit from our hostess will make you feel at home, with her basket of gifts and answers to questions about the city, its services and facilities. Just call...

Welcome Wagon

CALL MONA MARTIN

for a visit from welcome wagon to you or a new neighbor.
323-0882