South Side

By Lynne Alessio

From 349 nominees, 88 South High students will be honored at the annual Spartan Laurels Banquet Friday.

Mr. Lindemann of the Apollo Space Program will be the principal speaker. One laurels winner and three certificate winners will be selected from 22 categories:

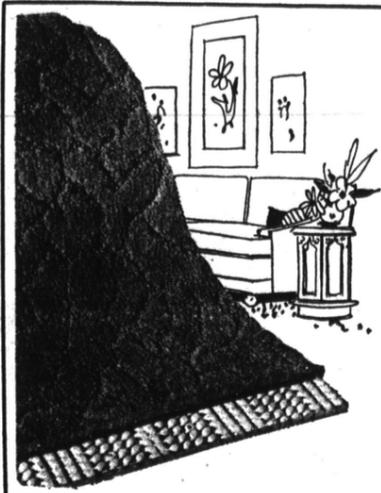

Art, Athlete-of-the-Year, business education, drama, English, foreign language, Girls' Athletic Association, home economics, industrial arts, journalism, mathematics, music, physical fitness, boys' physical education, girls' physical education, boy's service, girl's service, social science, speech, science, work experience, and leadership.

Today is the Industrial Arts Fair at South from 7:30 until 10 p.m. All shop classes—auto, metal and wood—will display work of the students. The fair is held in "Q" Building where the regular shop classrooms are held.

Of the 18 Student Council officers, 15 officers have been voted in: ASB president, David Brenner; Girls' League president, Paula Keener; Boys' League president, John Korbar; junior class president, Lenny Schapira; sophomore class president, Bim Armstrong.

The commissioners are: publicity, Therese Fitzpatrick; fine arts, Gerry Levanas; activities, Kathy Panovitch; club coordinator, Cindy Dunham; finance, Kathy Newton; pep, Cathy Giardinelli; public relations, Michelle Chiapetta; girls' athletics, Liz Harding; boys' athletics, Steve Vico.
