Hit-Run Driver Arrested

Torrance police arrested two youths early Sunday morning after the car in which they were riding collided with another vehicle at the corner of Torrance Boulevard and Anza Avenue, and continued on to hit two parked cars near the corner of Ladeene Avenue and Maricopa Street.

Driver of the careening vehicle was Randy L. Dandrea, 20, of 16100 S. Van Ness. He was charged with driving under the influence of an intoxicant, misdemeanor hit-and-run, possession of a narcotic, and contributing to the delinquency of minors.

ALSO ARRESTED on narcotic and delinquency charges was Ronald R. Long, 18, of Long Beach. Two Gardena girls also were passengers in the Dandrea car when the arrest was made.

Wayne Franz of Redondo Beach told police he was driving on Torrance Boulevard near Anza Avenue when the hit-run car allegedly collided with his vehicle. Franz said he then followed the car until it collided with the two parked cars and came to a halt.

A search of Dandrea's car turned up a red capsule containing what appeared to be heroin and a white tablet resembling benzedrine. Police said they found more capsules and tablets on the ground where Long was standing.
