

24 Dow Workers Honored

Twenty-four of The Dow Chemical Company's Torrance plant employees were honored at a service award dinner here this week.

The employees received awards for service which ranged from 10 years to 30 years each.

A. L. Holiday, Torrance plant manager, said the 24 employees had a total of 365 years service with the company.

One employe, D. M. Else-ser, received a 30-year service award, A. E. Perry received a 25-year service award.

Eighteen men received awards for 15 years of service and four received 10-year awards.

Army Pvt. Roy D. Steiner, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval L. Steiner, 18911 Cerise Ave., completed advanced training as a combat engineer May 30 at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.

NEW FACILITY . . . Torrance Datsun, one of the largest Datsun dealerships in the United States, has opened its doors in the heart of the city at 20710 Torrance Blvd. Occupying more than 67,000 square feet of property, the dealership features a 20-car showroom, a 16-stall service department with wash and steam racks, and a large parts department. A coffee room is also provided.

Woman Hurts Leg In Collision

A three-car traffic mishap Saturday sent a Los Angeles woman to Harbor General Hospital with an injured right leg.

Margaret J. VanderSlice was a passenger in a car driven by Gary Lee Mack, 24, of 716 Gulf Ave., Wilmington, when the car collided with a panel truck at the corner of 190th Street and Van Ness Avenue.

The truck's driver, Willie Bennett of Los Angeles, told police he was turning north onto Van Ness when his car collided with the Mack car, which was headed west on 190th Street.

Trio Wins Degrees At Davis

Three area students were among the more than 1,000 candidates for degrees at the University of California, Davis, in ceremonies there last weekend.

Glenn E. Garrod, Lomita, won a degree in international relations; Stephen D. Wyatt, Redondo Beach, in plant pathology; and Ronald A. Stremel, Torrance, in veterinary medicine.
