Alpha Betas In Farewell To Member

Members of Preceptor Alpha Beta of Beta Sigma Phi met at the home of Mrs. Ray Millhouse for a surprise bon voyage party for one of their members, Mrs. John Wise, who is leaving for Tulsa, Okla., with her children, to join Mr. Wise.

Close friends, relatives and sorority sisters joined in the celebration and showered Mrs. Wise with sewing gifts, notions and all types of materials used in sewing.

The potluck dinner was arranged by Mrs. Robert Nickelson, social chairman for the chapter.

Mrs. Wise joined Beta Sigma Phi in 1947 and was pledged by her sister, Mrs. Millhouse. She is a charter member of Xi Zeta Lambda chapter of Torrance and recently received her Order of the Rose degree from Preceptor Alpha Beta, Beta Sigma Phi's highest honor.

Horizon Club Honors Leaders at Party

Kleka Horizon Club girls and their mothers gathered for a party at the home of the club's president, Mrs. Dallas Rose Boyko, 16702 Cerise Ave. Tuesday evening May 28 at 7:30 p.m. to honor Mrs. Gerald Salisbury, leader of the group for five consecutive years, and Mrs. Hank Karaszewski, assistant.

The evening began with white carnation corsages being presented to the honored guests followed by slides shown of the Kleka girls' many outings and activities of the past five years.

Mrs. Salisbury and Mrs. Karaszewski were each presented with a Trifari florentine gold and pearl pin and a book entitled "All About You" along with an oversized humorous card from the group.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. John Homolka, 22914 Galva St., have returned from a six weeks vacation trip. They visited relatives in Nebraska and from there went to Mer Rouge, La. where they were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Gayle Carter the recipient of the club's gavel and engraved block and a scrap book dedicated to her to which each girl contributed several pages of captioned candid shots and pictures.

Highlight of the evening was a sentimental flower ceremony. Singing their camp song, the girls each holding daises walked by two into the living room and formed a semi-circle in front of the leader and assistant. Individually the girls approached Mrs. Salisbury and Mrs. Karaszewski to express their personal thanks and appreciation for their leadership and guidance of the past five years and presented each with a flower.

The leader and assistant were then invited to join the girls friendship ring to sing a favorite camp song.

Refreshments were served from a table centered by a book cake decorated by Mrs. Stephen Boyko with the Camp Fire insignia, roses, forget-me-nots and an appreciation inscription.

Mothers attending the party were Mmes. Jack Obuchon, Clinton Beedon, Robert West, Bill Johnson, Shinji Sugimoto, Milton Huber, S. S. Melnick.

Kleka Horizon Club members attending were: Janice Obuchon, Karen Karaszewski, Linda Karaszewski, Linda Salisbury, Cheryl Beedon, Linda Sugimoto, Mary Argyris, Rita Reis, Kathy Nady, Linda Phillips, Vickie West, Janice Johnson, Susan Melnick, Katherine Huber.

Unable to attend were: Eva Lippman, Kathleen Midstokke, and Nancy Kruse.

The Kleka Horizon Club girls, all North High June graduates of whom eleven were honor nominees at the recent North High Achievement banquet, will have their last outing together at Lake Arrowhead after graduation in June.

Area Sigma Kappas To Convention

Over 500 delegates are expected to attend the 63rd National Sigma Kappa Convention at Hotel del Coronado, San Diego, the week of June 25 to 30. The delegates will include representatives from the Sorority's 105 college and 212 Alumnae chapters throughout the United States.

Highlights of the convention this year will include speeches by Sigma Kappa Mrs. Ruth Miller, Dr. Daniel C. Aldrich, Jr., and Dr. Sidney Cohen.

Awards will be given to college and alumnae chapters in the areas of scholarship, philanthropy, teamwork, and convention exhibits. A first for the convention will be the establishment of the Violet Shop where articles for sale will be provided by the alumnae groups.

During the convention, new national officers will be elected and installed. The final event at the end of the week long proceedings will be a six day tour of the Hawaiian Islands for the delegates and their families.

Delegates from the South Bay Alumnae chapter who will attend the convention are Mrs. Ronald Tyler of Palos Verdes Peninsula who has been the group's convention representative with other local alumnae chapters that are in charge of the final night's dinner program and decorations; Mrs. Jerry Donohue of Palos Verdes Estates, the South Bay Panhellenic president; Miss Carolyn Strong and Mrs. Robert Myers of Torrance.
