

Sharon Kay Terrill

Miss California

Representing Torrance

The official Torrance delegation to the Miss California Pageant in Santa Cruz is pictured here shortly after Sharon Kay Terrill, Miss Torrance of 1968, was named winner of the Miss California title. Shown are Arnie Drier, director of the Miss Torrance Pageant; Sharon; Mrs. James Hussey, Sharon's official chaperone; and Mrs. Drier, who is a member of the official committee of the Miss Torrance Pageant.

Excited

An excited and happy Sharon Kay Terrill expresses her thanks to the television audience following her selection as Miss California. The annual pageant was televised in the Southland, enabling Torrance residents to watch Sharon's big moment.

Sharon Kay Terrill
Miss California, 1968

Signing Autograph

A youngster corners Sharon Kay Terrill following the Miss California Pageant to become one of the first persons to get the new Miss California's autograph. At left is the trophy which was presented to Sharon.

In Swim Suit

Sharon Kay Terrill pauses before the judges for the Miss California Pageant during the swim suit competition in Santa Cruz.

New Fur Coat

Aladino Stefani of Stefani Brothers Furriers checks a new fur coat for proper fit which was presented — along with several other prizes — to Sharon.

With Her Family

Sharon Kay Terrill, newly named Miss California, is pictured with her family during a post-pageant press conference. Shown are her brother, Corky, a 19-year-old El Camino College student; her father, Clark Terrill; Sharon; and her mother, Edale Terrill.

Presenting the Winner

Maria Fletcher (left), Miss America of 1962 and mistress of ceremonies for the 1968 Miss California Pageant, presents Sharon Kay Terrill to a Santa Cruz audience after Sharon was named Miss California of 1968.

Press-Herald Photos
by
Hal Fisher