

Patricia Spence Now Bride of Jerry Weeks

In a recent ceremony at the Christ the King Lutheran Church, Miss Patricia Marion Spence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Spence, 17504 Cerise Ave., exchanged marriage vows with Jerry E. Weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Weeks, 17449 Van Ness.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a bouffant train. An aurora borealis crown held her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

The bridal entourage consisted of Miss Kathy Spence, maid of honor; Mrs. Larry Flagg, Mrs. Steve Puckett and Miss Linda Colgan, bridesmaids; Miss Jennie Spence served as junior bridesmaid and Stacy Freeman was flower girl. All of the attendants wore electric blue satin brocade gowns and carried cascades of white carnations.

Larry Weeks served his nephew as best man. Ushers were Robert Jones, Jack Day, Larry Flagg and Gregory Day. Guy Weeks was ring bearer.

Pastor Elmer E. Christensen officiated at the marriage ceremony.

The 200 guests attended a reception and the newlyweds spent a honeymoon on a coastal trip. They are now at home at 3450 Emerald St., Torrance.

The marriage climaxed a romance which began in kindergarten. Both Mr. and Mrs. Weeks are 1964 graduates of North High School. They were graduated from El Camino, Mrs. Weeks in hairstyling and Mr. Weeks as a history major. He is now serving with the National Guard at the La Habra missile base.

Paid State Recognition

California Parks and Recreation Society (CPRS) held its annual awards banquet at the Indian Village recently and paid tribute to the Junior Woman's Club for its contribution to the community and to Miss Sue Amys, secretary of the Torrance department for her service. At the presentation are, from left, Harry B. Van Belleham, director of the Torrance Recreation Dept.; Sue Amys, department secretary; Mrs. Robert Yroman, president of the Junior Club; Dean Nuss, president of CPRS; and Fletcher Friedman, vice-president.

State Awards Presented

At CPRS's Annual Banquet

Two special Recognition Awards were presented to a Torrance service group and a city resident by the California Parks and Recreation Society (CPRS) at their annual awards dinner held in the Indian Village Restaurant.

Sue Amys, secretary for Parks and Playgrounds Division of the City of Torrance Recreation Department, received an award for Secretarial Service to the Membership and Hospitality Committee of CPRS.

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club, commended for various community contributions, were also award recipients.

Services rendered by the Woman's Club included donations totaling over $1,000 to the Happy Wanderer Puppet Theater and towards the purchasing of play equipment at the Pueblo Community Center.

The Woman's Club also provided leadership in developing the Head Start Program at Pueblo Center, including the establishment of a local Toy Loan Center.

Special Recognition Award is given to individuals and organizations who are not members of CPRS but have made an outstanding contribution to the community in some area of recreation.
