

Two Golf Tournaments Scheduled

Golfers from throughout Southern California are being invited to two golf tournaments scheduled for Idio Municipal Golf Course.

The first, on Jan. 21, is the Third Anniversary Tournament of the golf course, and is being sponsored by the Idio Chamber of Commerce.

It is a mixed partner medal play tournament, and the big prize is a trip for two to Hawaii. Co-chairmen Andy Sfinzi and John Slater say that there will be additional trip prizes, such as a weekend in Las Vegas, as well as merchandise prizes.

Entry fee is $10 per person and includes dinner. The tournament is open to the public.

The second tournament for the course is for members of the Southern California Ladies Par 3 Association and is Jan. 28. It is an invitational for the Tri-Palms Estates Club at Thousand Palms, but tournament chairman, Ethel Place, says all Par 3 members are welcome to participate.

The $4 entry fee includes green fees, prizes and evening potluck dinner. The tournament is for both men and women and entry blanks are available from Idio Municipal Golf Course.

ACTRESS JERI JAMERSON has been selected as official hostess for the 12th annual Southern California Boat Show, to be held Jan. 26-Feb. 4, at Pan-Pacific Auditorium, Los Angeles. Jeri, who is to be seen in "Funny Girl," is a sports enthusiast when not busy dancing or acting.

Dryer Developed For Ski Resorts

After a day on the snowy slopes, skiers are usually found warming up and drying off in front of a cozy fire.

Now there's a handy way to dry wet gloves, socks and other gear while leaving more room for tired schuss-boomers in front of the fireplace. A recently introduced portable clothes dryer will do up a sizable batch of everything from gloves to parkas in a matter of minutes. It can be wheeled on casters to be plugged in anywhere there is an adequately wired 115-volt electrical outlet.

Ski resort owners can place several of the portable dryers wherever the apres-ski crowd relaxes. A couple more might come in handy in the lodge sleeping area, to be wheeled into individual rooms as the guests request.

At clubs and resorts where skiers stay for some time, the Porta-Dryer is ideal for drying anything a regular dryer will handle and holds about half a standard-size dryer load. An average load takes less than an hour of low-temperature drying time, but 115 minutes are available on the timer.

A-frames and other family ski homes are good spots to hang the portable dryer on the wall. It comes in avocado, copper or white to blend with any decor.

The appliance is sized just right to be transported in the family station wagon. At the end of ski season, the portable dryer can return home to go on the family summer vacation. It's one bit of ski equipment in the $100 range that is handy in any season.
