

Jewish Community Plans Dinner-Dance

Formal invitations have been mailed to members of Temple Menorah for the 22nd annual Installation Dinner-Dance to be held Saturday, Jan. 20, in the Temple social hall.

Beginning with a social hour at 7 p.m., the event will feature a steak dinner at 8 p.m. Everett Orchestra will provide music for dancing.

Lecturer Speaks on Freedom

Not all prisoners are behind bars, a Christian Science lecturer said here recently, and defined imprisonment as any kind of unwholesome limitation or restriction.

"Whether we realize it or not, we're all to some degree in prison," Eugene D. Tyc, of San Diego, California, told an audience in 1st Church of Christ, Scientist, Monday night.

Age, sickness, unemployment—lack of education, companionship, money—alcoholism, drug addiction, lawlessness—fear, hatred, pride—these were some of the "prisons" he named.

"The truth about man's real nature," Tyc concluded, "... will open the door of every prison, not eventually, but right now."

A Christian Science practitioner, actively engaged in the healing ministry of this church, Tyc is currently on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Town Meet Planned In Carson

Citizens of the Carson-Victoria Park-Dominguez area have been invited by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn to attend an "old fashioned town meeting" Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Stephen M. White Junior High School.

Purpose of the meeting, to be held in the auditorium, is to acquaint all citizens with the new voting devices which will be used in the primary and general elections in June and November.

"Everyone will have an opportunity to try the device and ask questions about it," Hahn said.

He has requested the new Registrar of Voters, Ray E. Lee, to be present at the meeting.

Hahn said he looks forward to meeting personally many of the citizens in his district and discussing with them their suggestions for improvement programs at the local level.

Stephen M. White Junior High School is located at 22102 So. Figueroa St.
