Awards Made for Services

Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary held its Installation of Officers and Awards Luncheon on Wednesday, Jan. 17 at the Los Verdes Country Club on Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Mrs. Arthur Grayson assumed the presidency of the auxiliary for a second term. The installation ceremony was conducted by Mrs. Grayson and Sister M. Terrence, honorary president.

Installed were Mmes. Richard Stevens, first vice-president; John Kennedy, second vice-president; Robert Lauterjung, third vice-president; David Theobald, treasurer; Jerry Frazier, secretary; Rox Moyers, financial secretary; and Timothy McMillan, corresponding secretary.

For the first time, the Hospital Auxiliary named and honored a "Volunteer of the Year." She is Mrs. Helen Sims, who during the past year served 2,000 volunteer hours in the hospital. A senior member of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Sims has totaled 3,568 hours of service.

During the year of 1967, members of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary donated 26,682 hours of service to the hospital.

In recognition of their service hours, pins were presented by Mrs. Grayson.

Receiving 500 hour pins were Mmes. Fred Brierly, John Gunning, Luke Jacobs, Ellita McCagg, Ellen McCune, Clinton Stine, and David Theobald.

Recipients of 1,000 hour pins were Mmes. Joan Mason and Richard Stephens.

Mmes. Lee Fox, Helen Sims and John Wilson were paid recognition for 2,000 hours of service and 3,000 hour pin recipients were Mmes. Arthur Grayson, Theo Roevens, and Helen Sims.

Mrs. George Olivieri, who has totaled 8,000 hours of service, was honored.

After the pinning ceremony, Mrs. Grayson presented Sister Magdalen, administrator of the hospital, with a check for $16,500 from the auxiliary.
