Presents Ella Lee, Soprano

Ella Lee, noted American soprano, will appear Friday, Jan. 26, at Mira Costa Auditorium at 8:15 p.m. as the third attraction in the current South Bay Community Concert series. Edward Schick will be the accompanist.

concert and opera engagements. Miss Lee is famous for her uncommonly beautiful voice and flawless, deeply moving performances.

Miss Lee was raised in California, attending Los Angeles City College and UCLA and then going on to study opera in Germany. She has received star billing internationally in both

In Miss Lee's South Bay program she will sing six groups equally divided into concert and opera selections: Music for a While, I'll Sail upon the Dog Star, The Queen's Epicedium (Henry Purcell); In der Fremde, In-termezzo, Waldesgesprach, Die Stille, Mondnacht,

Officers Installed At Dinner-Dance

Los Angeles County Medical Association Southwest District 9 staged its annual Installation Dinner Dance, Saturday evening Jan. 20 at the Palos Verdes Country Club.

Arrangements for the event were handled by Mitchell Hassen, M.D., program chairman. Master of ceremonies was Joseph Schultz, M.D. Music for dancing was provided by Les Tronziers and his orchestra.

Doctors who were installed for the coming year are John Wasserman, president; Mitchell Hassen, vice-president; James C. Roberts, secretary-treasurer.

Scrolls for meritorious, voluntary, community, and humanitarian services were presented to A. C. Niemeyer, M.D.; R. Lescoe, M.D.; William Taylor, M.D. and Carl Tabetario, MD.

An entertaining interlude was provided by Dr. and Mrs. Alan Steen.

District 18
To Observe

Marina District 18, California Federation of Women's Clubs, will hold a Birthday Council meeting Friday, Jan. 26, at the Santa Monica Bay Women's Club, 1210 4th St., Santa Monica.

Mrs. A. E. Glad, president, will conduct the business meeting, beginning at 9:45 a.m.

Other state officers and federation chairmen will be in attendance. The Birthday Council meeting celebrates the organizing of Marina District in 1955 and past presidents will be honored. Mrs. Emanuel T. Goertz, first president, will lead the Birthday March.

Two concerts remain in the current series: Ruth Page's International Ballet, matinee, Sunday, February 18; and David Bar-Illan, pianist, Saturday, March 9.

Memberships will soon be available for the 1968-69 Community Concert Series which will begin in the fall. A one week membership drive will start February 26 and close on March 2. The headquarters will be at the Redondo Elk's Club with Mrs. Tallman Chittenden in charge. Volunteers to help enroll members during the campaign are needed. Anyone interested is asked to call Mrs. Allen Hofferber, membership chairman.
