

Come To The Mardi Gras

Set
Carnival
Scene

Revelry of the Mardi Gras will permeate the Airport Marina Hotel on Feb. 20 when Bishop Montgomery Mothers Club presents its fourth annual Fashion Show and Buffet Dinner. Mardi Gras decorations will be used and prizes will be three trips, one to New Orleans, scene of the Mardi Gras. In the mood for their major money raising event of the year, these committee members don carnival hats to blow up balloons which will be part of the decor. They are, from left, Mmes. Ronald Puhl, advertising chairman; Clarence Van Lingen, publicity; Nicolas Humting, president; and John Porizek, co-chairman.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Bishop Montgomery Mothers Club

Presents Fashion Event

An evening of fashion, food and frolic with a "Come to the Mardi Gras" theme is being planned by committee members of the Bishop Montgomery High School's Mothers Club for their fourth annual Fashion Show.

This major fund raising event of the year for the Mothers Club, featuring a Fashion Show and Buffet Dinner, will be held at the Airport Marina Hotel, 8601 Lincoln Blvd., Los Angeles, on Tuesday, Feb. 20, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Committee chairmen for the social affair, serving under the direction of Mrs. Nicholas Humting, president, are Mmes. James R. Weber, fashion coordinator and general chairman, with Mrs. John Porizek as her co-chairman; Mrs. F. K. Cahalane and Mrs. James Van Voorhis, tickets and reservations.

Mrs. Robert Schloeder and Mrs. Roy Stinchcomb, co-chairmen of prizes, have announced that the major door prize for the evening is a 10-day vacation for two, a round trip by jet for one week at Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, Fla., and three nights at the Roosevelt Hotel in New Orleans, La.; also a set of custom luggage for both men and women.

The second prize is a weekend for two at the La Costa Country Club and Health Spa and a wiglet and carrying case, plus a hair dryer. A weekend for two at Mammoth Mountain Inn and a twin lens Reflex camera is the third prize and the fourth prize is a "Sur-Prize."

Other committee chairmen assisting include Mmes. Donald Puhl, advertising; Frederick Brierley, patrons; Robert Lewellen, hostesses; N. Spears, decorations; and Clarence Van Lingen, publicity.

Mrs. Spears and her committee have announced that colorful Mardi Gras decorations and table centerpieces will carry out the "Come to the Mardi Gras" motif.

Future Brides

Hanny - Roettger

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Hanny of Turlock, formerly of Torrance, announce the engagement of their daughter, Cynthia, to Timothy Lee Roettger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roettger of Torrance.

The future bride was graduated from South High School, El Camino College and is presently attending Stanislaus State College. She will be graduated in June with a BA in English.

Miss Hanny, with her parents, moved to Turlock when her father accepted a coaching position at Stanislaus State College.

The bride-to-be is currently "Miss Stanislaus County" and represented her County in the 1967 "Miss California Pageant" where she was chosen "Miss Congeniality."

Mr. Roettger, grandson of Mrs. C. C. Crum of Catalina Ave., Redondo, and Mr. Oscar Roettger, also of Redondo, early residents of this area, was graduated from South High School. He received his degree in business marketing in June of last year from California Lutheran College at Thousand Oaks. He is a member of the Los Angeles Jonathan Club and is currently serving with the United States Army.

The couple is planning a summer wedding following Mr. Roettger's completion of Officers' Candidate School.

CYNTHIA HANNY

Bredman - Fowler

A summer wedding is being planned by Miss Susan Marie Bredman of Huntington Beach and Mr. Richard Thomas Fowler of Torrance.

The announcement of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter is made today by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Norman Bredman, 22641 Nadine Circle, Torrance.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Harold Fowler, 2333 W. 235th St., Torrance.

The bride-elect, a 1962 North High graduate, received her BS degree in education at the University of the Pacific in Stockton in 1966. She did post-graduate work, receiving her teaching credentials, at UCLA in 1967. At the University of the Pacific, she was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Miss Bredman is now a first grade teacher with the Fountain Valley School district.

Mr. Fowler, a Morningside High School graduate, obtained an AA degree, with a journalism major at El Camino College and a BS in business administration, with an advertising major, at Woodbury College. He is now employed by the California Offset Enterprises in Paramount.

SUSAN BREDMAN

Guild

Awards

Scholarship

Bay Harbor Hospital Guild awarded its first Nursing scholarship this week to Virginia Forsberg, Harbor Junior College Vocational Nursing student, who will be graduated in June. At the presentation are, from left standing, Josephine Mitchell, director of nurses, Frank Kredel, administrator; seated, from left, Mmes. Olin Grubb, Guild scholarship chairman, Miss Forsberg, and Mrs. Charles Seil, president of the Guild. The Guild has voted to make the scholarship its continuing philanthropy. Miss Forsberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell T. Forsberg of Minnesota, attends school daily and is employed four evenings a week nursing.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Gear for New Year

Bringing their year to a successful close, South Bay Hospital Auxiliary presented a check to the hospital and installed its new officers at a luncheon at Lococo's restaurant last Thursday. In top picture, Arthur Miller, hospital administrator, accepts an $8,000 check from Mrs. Joseph Fischer, president. At the right are new officers for the coming year. Seated, from left, Mmes. Thomas Whitlow, first vice-president; Joseph Fischer, president; Wayne Donovan, second vice-president. Standing, from left, Mmes. Paul McGrath, third vice-president; John Fraser, fourth vice president; Ralph Terheggen, recording secretary; Gayle Martin, parliamentarian; Jack Chelius, gift shop; John Adams, treasurer; Joseph Manning, corresponding secretary, and James Gardner, financial secretary.

(Press-Herald Photo)

