

WINE and ROSES

Pre-Ball
Cocktail
Parties

The social calendar is filled with cocktail parties to be held next Saturday evening before guests descend upon the Regency Room at the Airport Marina Hotel for the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary's gala "Wine and Roses" Valentine Ball. In ballgowns and black tie, enjoying a bit of camaraderie amid Valentines before leaving for the Ball, are from left, Mmes. Frank Jelsma and Mrs. Leonard Ensminger and Mr. Ensminger, administrator at the hospital and Mr. Jelsma. Proceeds from the event will go towards the auxiliary's $100,000 pledge to the new hospital, with construction to begin in April. (Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FEBRUARY 14, 1968

B-1

Future Bride

BONNIE LEACH
(Tiffany Studio)

Leach - Self

In a three o'clock wedding on March 30 at the Rollings Hills Methodist Church, Miss Bonnie M. Leach will become the bride of Robert W. Self.

The announcement of the approaching marriage of their daughter is made today by Mr. and Mrs. Warren R. Leach, 6653 Crest Rd., Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Miss Leach is a senior at Palos Verdes High School.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noble G. Self, 29200 Beachside Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula, was graduated from Palos Verdes High in 1966. He attended Harbor Junior College and is now employed by his father in Gardena.

Barrington-Keiser Vows Solemnized

Miss Lesley Alison Barrington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Barrington, 1541 Post Ave, walked down the aisle of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, on the arm of her father, at two o'clock on Jan. 20 to exchange marriage vows with Gregory Allan Keiser.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Keiser, 22937 Madison St., Torrance.

For her wedding, the bride was gowned in a Victorian creation of white silk organza fashioned with long sleeves, a high collar and floor length skirt. Daisy lace entwined with poudre blue ribbon enhanced the neckline, sleeves and bodice of the gown. A flat organza bow, trimmed with the daisy lace, held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli and stephanotis centered by white orchids.

The bridal entourage consisted of Miss Michele Baim, maid of honor; Misses Cynthia Tolson, Claudia Barrington and Stacy Barrington, bridesmaids. They were attired in lime green organza cage dresses trimmed with the white daisy lace and poudre blue ribbon. Their bouquets were lime green Chinese asters and white chrysanthemums.

Robert La Porte stood as best man and ushers were Steve Keiser, Eric Jones, and John Barrington.

Rev. Hugh Percy, pastor, officiated at the vow exchange as Mrs. Meridith Anderson played the nuptial music.

The newlyweds were greeted by 100 wedding guests at a reception held at the home of the bride's parents.

The new Mrs. Keiser was graduated from Torrance High School in 1967 and attended Woodbury College.

Her husband, a 1964 graduate of Washington High, attended Trade Technical School and El Camino College.

He is now serving with the United States Navy and he and his bride will be at home in Hawaii.

Torrance Woman's Club

Fashion Brunch Benefit Feb. 21

Peeking At
Spring's
New Fashions

Visiting Bullock's Del Amo to make final plans for their benefit Fashion Brunch on Feb. 21, Torrance Woman's Club members, from left, Mmes. Albert Isen, W. F. Faulds, and Robert Winship, get a sneak preview of some of spring's newest creations, worn by model Mary Jane. The spring show and brunch is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 21. Mrs. Alma Smith may be contacted for tickets. (Press-Herald Photo)

Scholarship and Fashion will share the spotlight at the Torrance Woman's Club Fashion Brunch on Wednesday, Feb. 21, in the dining room of Bullock's Del Amo at 9:30 a.m. All proceeds from the brunch will go into college scholarships for local students.

Kitty Leslie, publicity director for Bullock's Del Amo, will be the commentator and coordinator of the spring styles to be shown. Mrs. Leslie will be assisted by Diane Thomas. Professional models will show ensembles and suits especially designed with the Easter season in mind.

Mmes. Bruce Marsh, R.E. Moffitt and Richard Dorothy are general chairmen for the Fashion Brunch. Mrs. Alma Smith is ticket chairman; Mrs. James Wilkes, favors; and Mrs. William Faulds, door prizes.

The public is invited to this spring Fashion Brunch.

MRS. GREGORY ALLAN KEISER
(Seeman Portrait)

Queen to Be Named at Sweetheart Ball

Beta Sigma Phi

Hearts, flowers and cherubs will set the romantic scene at the Los Verdes Country Club, Saturday, Feb. 24 for the Southern California Council, Beta Sigma Phi, annual "Sweetheart Ball."

Highlight of the evening will be the naming of the "Queen of the Sweetheart Ball." This year two queens will be selected, a junior queen as well as a chapter queen. Five Nu Phi Mu chapters will compete for the junior queen title and 12 chapters, ritual, exemplar and preceptors, will vie for the queen title. The young women will be judged on charm, personality, and Beta Sigma Phi attributes.

Alvy Moore of motion pictures and television fame will serve as master of ceremonies.

A cocktail hour will precede the Ball and a buffet dinner will be held at 7:30 p.m. Music for dancing will be provided by the "Esquires" directed by K. Barry Ulrich.

Honored guests will be the reigning queen and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Chowning; Mr. and Mrs. Alvy Moore (Mrs. Moore is president of the Southern California Council); Mr. and Mrs. Allan Moore, sponsors for the South Bay Area Council; and the Council president and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Scott.

Junior
Queen
Candidates

Among the five representatives from the Nu Phi Mu chapters, competing for the first Junior Queen title at the Beta Sigma Phi "Sweetheart Ball" will be, from left, top, Elizabeth Davis, Phi Zeta Rho; Rebecca Hamilton, Phi Zeta Tau, and lower center, Jackie Renner, Phi Zeta Sigma.

Portray
'Queenly'
Charms

Representatives from 12 chapters, chosen for their charm, poise and Beta Sigma Phi attributes, will vie for the title of "Queen" at the Southern California Council, Beta Sigma Phi "Sweetheart Ball." Among those, posing difficulty for the judges, will be, from left, top, Mmes. Andrew Foster, Preceptor Alpha Beta; Jack Cronander, Xi Nu Epsilon, and lower center, Paul Jordal, Alpha Alpha Omega.

(Press-Herald Photos)