

A Night In Old Mexico

Vivid colors of Mexico, carried out in paper and feather flowers as well as tiny straw burros, made in Mexico especially for the occasion, will set a delightful atmosphere for the Mardi Gras Ball Saturday evening aboard the SS Princess Louise, presented by the Parents' Association of St. Peter's Tuller School. Committee members get in the mood as they select decorations, from left, Mmes. Allen Bloom, T. O. Pratt, William Bader, Alex Campton, and Allan B. MacAller. (Press-Herald Photo)

Festive Mexican Decor

Mardi Gras Ball Saturday Evening

In a colorful Mexican setting aboard the SS Princess Louise on Saturday evening Feb. 24 the Parents' Association of the St. Peter's Tuller School will stage its annual benefit Mardi Gras Ball.

The pinata centerpieces will feature bright Mexican colors as will other appointments throughout the picturesque Harbor View Room, where patrons of the benefit will dine and dance until the "wee small hours."

This gala black-tie social event is earmarked to enhance the fund for special educational equipment for St. Peter's Tuller School, an Episcopalian parochial school, located on the grounds of St. Peter's Episcopal Church in San Pedro. The school is operated by the Sisters of the Order of the Teachers of the Children of God.

Mrs. Larry Burns, president of the Parents' Association, has appointed Mrs. Allan MacAller, chairman of the event.

Secretaries Plan

'Bosses' Night'

South Bay Legal Secretaries will have "Bosses' Night" at their dinner meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 20, at Mishima's restaurant, 18515 South Western in Gardena.

Myron Siedorf, Associate Inheritance Tax Attorney with the State Controller's office, will discuss Inheritance Taxes in general and the forms related, with particular emphasis on a "question and answer" program.

Cocktails will be at 6:30 p.m., with dinner at 7:15 p.m. Mary Savidan and Virginia Schmitt, are taking reservations.

Mothers Club To Present

Mardi Gras Fashion Gala

Looking forward to an evening of "Fun, Food and Fashion" are members of the Bishop Montgomery High School Mothers Club, as they stage their fourth Annual Fashion Show on Tuesday, Feb. 20. This is the Club's major fund raising event of the year.

The affair, with a theme of "Come To The Mardi Gras," will be held at the Airport Marina Hotel, 8601 Lincoln Blvd., Los Angeles.

The social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. and a Buffet Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m.

Colorful Mardi Gras decorations and table centerpieces will be used in shades of red, pink and gold. Glittered and papier mache masks and wrought iron backdrops will be featured.

Members will act as models and students will model teenage fashions. The latest in spring styles, ranging from casual to glamorous formal wear will be provided. Elliot Mahn will be commentator during the show. Assisting the models as they parade the Fashion ramp, will be two Bishop Montgomery students, Clarice Van Lingen and Beth Taylor, dressed in harlequin costumes. Models' coiffures will be the courtesy of a Redondo Beach salon.

Committee chairmen serving under the direction of Mrs. Nicolas Humting, president, are: Mmes. James R. Weber, fashion coordinator and general chairman, with Mrs. John Porizek as her assistant; Mmes. F. E. Cahalane and James Van Voorhis, tickets and reservations.

Mrs. Robert Schoeder and Mrs. Roy Stinchcomb, grand prize chairmen, have announced that three trips will be awarded during the evening, including a 10-day vacation for two in Miami Beach, Fla. and in New Orleans, home of the Mardi Gras; a weekend for two at the La Costa Country Club; and a weekend for two at Mammoth Mountain Inn.

Other committee chairmen are Mmes. Donald Puhl, advertising; Edwin Gilroy, door prizes; F. Rizzo, souvenir program; Frederick Brierley, patrons; Anthony Carbone, table favors; Robert Lewellen, hostesses; N. Spears, decorations; John Lawson, wardrobe; and Clarence Van Lingen, publicity.

Mardi Gras decorations are being made by the art students of Bishop Montgomery High School.

All seating will be by invitation and reservation.

Future Bride

JAN BRADSHAW

Bradshaw - Anderson

Climaxing a childhood romance is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Jan Marie Bradshaw and Karl Gunnar Anderson.

Relatives and close friends were told of the engagement at a formal dinner party given recently by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bradshaw, 2517 232nd St., Torrance.

Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar C. Anderson of Long Beach. Both graduates of Morningside High School, Miss Bradshaw attended El Camino College and her fiance attended Long Beach State College.

The future bride, who has held the titles of "Miss Inglewood" and "Miss Torrance," is presently a hostess with Trans-World Airlines. Mr. Anderson is employed by the Stan Miller Sailboat firm. He has won several trophies in sailing.

The wedding will be solemnized in the spring at the Covenant Presbyterian Church in Long Beach.

Needlework Guild Will

Plan Philanthropic Year

Although many of the neighborhood branches of the Peninsula Volunteers Needlework Guild have been meeting regularly, either in sewing sessions or in money making activities, the Peninsula chapter as a whole will have its first meeting of the year on Monday Feb. 19, at 10 a.m. in the clubhouse of the Assistance League of San Pedro. This is the annual business meeting.

It will begin with a visit over the coffee cups, hospitality courtesy of the Portuguese Bend branch, and a chance to view some of the garments and other items on display around the room made by various neighborhood groups. Then the members will be given an idea of how some of the money donated by them is spent when two "shoe fund" checks are presented by the president, Mrs. Frederick Geisel, one for $700 to Mrs. Leone Rich, president of the Assistance League, and one for $400 to Mrs. John Roney, president of the Manhattan Beach Sandpipers. Mrs. Roney will introduce her philanthropy chairman, Mrs. Wayne Hokom. Mrs. Rich and Mrs. Hokom will report on the number of pairs of shoes purchased with the money donated last year, about 150 pairs.

Further business includes the presentation of the budget by Mrs. Robert Lande, treasurer, and the distribution of the year books by the year book chairman, Mrs. A. Fischer. Mrs. Roger Taylor, in charge of program, will announce the future meetings. They are the Spring meeting on May 20 at 1 p.m. to be held at Harbor General Hospital (beginning with lunch for the members and followed by a tour of the facility); the Rally meeting on Oct. 7 at the Assistance League clubhouse, featuring a fashion show of garments made by Guild members; the In-gathering on Oct. 15 at 10 a.m. in Toberman Settlement House; and the final meeting of the year, the Rally Luncheon, to be held this year in the new Elks Club in San Pedro.

To close the meeting, Mrs. Geisel will introduce the speaker of the day, Mr. R. F. Morales, director of the Neighborhood Youth Association of Wilmington. He will discuss the work of his organization and tell how the Needlework Guild helps with its donations of good new clothing.

Indian Maiden Feast

Approximately 600 Indian Maidens and their mothers will gather at the Torrance YMCA next Friday evening for the annual Indian Maiden Feast. Serving will begin at 6:30 p.m. Gum drop trees will be used as table centerpieces for the event. Having fun making the "candy trees" are, from left, Mmes. William Kenley, Julie Neal 7, Mrs. Richard Neal and Diane Kenley 8. (Press-Herald Photo)

Come To The Mardi Gras

Frivolity of the Mardi Gras will reign supreme when Bishop Montgomery Mothers Club stages its Mardi Gras Fashion event Tuesday evening at the Airport Marina Hotel. Capturing the spell of the Mardi Gras are committee members, from left, Mmes. Clarence Van Lingen, as a flapper; Anthony Carbone, in harlequin costume, working on a table decoration; and Robert Schoeder, grand prize chairman, in a ballgown. (Press-Herald Photo)

Engagement Announced

On April 27 at the St. Cornelius Church in Long Beach, Miss Diane Ozel Mitchell of Huntington Beach will become the bride of Kenneth Bruce McFadden of Torrance.

The future bride is the daughter of Mrs. Montgomery Cameron of Huntington Beach and Mr. Paul Raymond Mitchell of South Gate. A graduate of the Las Cruces, New Mexico, High School, she attended Los Angeles College of Dental Assistants and is now employed by a Garden Grove dentist.

Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McFadden, 18027 St. Andrews Pl., Torrance, was graduated from El Camino and Chico State Colleges. He is presently attending Long Beach State working for his teaching credentials. He is a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.
