Clever Doolittle Theme

Chi Omega Alumnae Set Bridge Benefit

Whimsical papier-mache animals, reminiscent of Dr. Doolittle's days, will set the stage for the South Bay Chi Omega Alumnae Association's 10th annual bridge benefit luncheon. "Dwaddling with Dr. Doolittle" will be the theme for the sorority's event planned for Saturday afternoon, March 9, at Los Verdes Country Club, 30201 Hawthorne Blvd., Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Prior to the buffet, a social hour from 11 to 12 will be held. An afternoon of bridge follows the presentation of door prizes.

Proceeds will be donated to the South Bay Center for Educational Therapy, 1092 Pier Ave., Hermosa Beach. The Center, which is in its second year of operation, specializes in tutoring children who have learning difficulties due to neurological or emotional problems. Dr. Janet Switzer, a certified clinical psychologist, is director of the non-profit corporation.

Preparations for the event are under the direction of Mrs. Jason Terry, philanthropy chairman. Assisting committee members are Mmes. Harold Blake, Ronald Sullivan, Gail Vosburg, John Nelson, and H. L. Weaver.
