

Sharin' of the Green

They'll share the "green" with deserving students from El Camino who plan to enter a four year school and pursue a teaching career. These El Camino Faculty Wives show how they will share the proceeds from the fashion show on March 14 when they dole out scholarships from the Eva Murdock Fund. They are from left, Mmes. Clinton Stine, chairman; Harold R. Wolpert, hospitality chairman; Wallace F. Cohen, co-chairman; and Sumner Power, on the ways and means committee. Reservations for the Fashion Show, to begin at 7 p.m., may be made by calling Mrs. William Mooney or Mrs. Clinton Stine. (Press-Herald Photo)

El Camino Faculty

Wives to Stage Gala

Fashion Show March 14

Event Will Benefit Project

South Bay Chapter of Women's American ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation through Training) will stage a gala dinner dance at Galley West restaurant at Marineland Saturday evening to raise funds for MOT (Maintenance Overseas Training Project). Working out final plans for the social event are from left, Mrs. Stephen Harris; Mrs. Mel Schwartzburg types publicity release while Mrs. Bernard Eisenberg, general chairman, checks it out. Planning cocktail parties prior to the dance are Mmes. Gene Kaufman, Jordan Rhodes, Aaron Silvera, Lloyd Koosed, Jerome Sokolski, Mel Schwartzburg and Robert Collins. (Press-Herald Photo)

In keeping with the "wearin' of the green" season, El Camino Faculty Wives chose a clever "sharin' of the green" theme for the benefit Fashion Show to be held Thursday, March 14, at 7 p.m. at the Del Amo room at Bullock's.

***

Each year the Faculty Wives' Club gives at least two scholarships to deserving El Camino students, who are transferring to a four year school and who intend to make a career in teaching. Mrs. Carl Meadows, club president, has announced that the proceeds from the fashion event will go to the Eva Murdock Scholarship Fund from which the scholarships are given.

***

Mrs. Clinton Stine, ways and means chairman, is in charge of the event. She is being assisted by Mmes. James Walker, Wallace Cohen and Sumner Powers.

Mrs. William Mooney, scholarship chairman, and her committee are in charge of ticket sales.

***

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Hal Wolpert, hospitality chairman, and her committee.

Reservations should be made by Thursday. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Mooney, Mrs. Stine or any club member.

***

Music for the fashion show will be provided by Hamilton Maddaford, El Camino Dean of Men.

Andrea Felker Now Mrs. Leonard Poynter

At the Our Lady of the Snows Catholic Church in Ketchum, Ida., on Feb. 14, Miss Andrea Anne Felker, daughter of Mrs. Laura Felker, 635 Paseo de La Playa in the Riviera, and Mr. Max L. Felker of Rolling Hills, became the bride of Leonard Poynter of Sun Valley, Ida.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. David Dillon of Hollywood and Mr. Victor Poynter of Hermosa Beach. The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Charles Hayden. Serving as her matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Charles Hayden Jr.

Best man duties were performed by John Heaney and Mark Abel was the usher.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the Warm Springs Ranch at Sun Valley. In charge of the guest book were Misses Connie Hall and Barbara Gilmore.

The bride, a graduate of the Palos Verdes High School, is the granddaughter of pioneer South Bay residents, Mrs. Joseph A. Defouri of Redondo Beach and the late Mr. Defouri, who came to the area in 1906, and Mr. W. A. Felker of Torrance and the late Mrs. Felker.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Mira Costa High School and is a stone masonry contractor in Sun Valley where the couple will make their home.

Future Bride

Hanson - Ashley

JANET HANSON

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Hanson, 30770 Ganado Dr., Palos Verdes Peninsula, formerly of Torrance, are today announcing the engagement of their daughter, Janet Louise, to Richard Kent Ashley.

No date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect attended Torrance schools for 11 years and was graduated from North High in 1966. At North, she served as Associated Student Body President in her senior year. Presently, she is a sophomore at the University of California at Santa Barbara, majoring in English.

The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ashley, 2839 163rd St., is a 1965 graduate of North High School. He is a junior at the University of California at Santa Barbara, majoring in political science. Mr. Ashley is vice-president of the Santa Barbara chapter of Zeta Beta Tau fraternity.

Romantic Camelot Theme

Welcome Wagon Club Presents Spring Fashion Extravaganza

Red and gold decor, carried out in scrolls and spring flowers, with a background of appropriate music denoting the Camelot era, will set the romantic mood when the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club stages its annual Fashion Show and Luncheon, Thursday, March 14, at the Plush Horse Inn.

Club members and their guests will view a parade of spring's newest fashions, presented by a Rolling Hills Plaza fashion firm. Twelve women from the club will model the seasonal sportswear and dressy apparel, announced Mrs. Richard Odgers, coordinator and commentator for the event. Also shown, will be the latest hairstyle creations, worn by the models, and designed by a local beauty salon.

Special invitations are extended to new residents in the Torrance and Redondo areas. The luncheon of beef tips a la deutch will begin at 12:30 p.m. Reservations must be in by March 7.

Tickets and further information concerning the Fashion Show-Luncheon may be obtained by contacting Mrs. William Hayden, 5513 Bayridge Rd., Palos Verdes Peninsula, general program chairman. Child care will be available to members and prospective members.

Committee chairmen for the spring social event include Mmes. William Rittenhouse decorations; Wayne McElrath, programs; James Sullivan, door prizes; Don Stuart, table favors; Bert Hall, publicity; and Larry McLaughlin, assistant coordinator.

There's Not A More Fantastic Spot

The tales of Camelot are being enjoyed by these committee members of the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club as they prepare for their Fashion Show and Luncheon to be held Thursday, March 14, at the Plush Horse Inn. Hearing the story are from left, Mmes. James Sullivan, Donald Zavodnik, William Hayden, general chairman relating the story; Richard Odgers; and Bert Hall. Elegance of the Camelot period will be carried out in the decorations. (Press-Herald Photo)