

Lesson of New Taxes Harsh, Reagan Says

SACRAMENTO—Governor Ronald Reagan said Wednesday night the lesson of April 15, 1968, when the new and greatly increased state income tax becomes due, will be a harsh one and he hopes it makes the taxpayers angry—but the anger should be focused on the people who caused it.

Reagan spoke to the annual meeting of the California Taxpayers Association in San Francisco.

"The lesson of April 15, 1968, will be a harsh one," Reagan said. "It should serve as a reminder that government is not free—not even when the costs are hidden and sugar-coated and dribbled out through gimmicks and slogans which may sound good, but which only delay the day of reckoning.

THE TAX increase should make you angry," he said. "I hope it does make you angry. It makes me angry.

"But focus your anger on those who caused it—those who first spent your money without telling you what the bill would be—and without making clear to you that you would have to pick up the check," Reagan said. "Focus your anger on the politician who uses your money to buy his votes and then tries to shift the blame when the bills come due. An angry taxpayer is the best weapon we have for keeping down the costs of government."

REAGAN said the legislature, almost daily, passes bills which demand more of the people's money.

"The votes are cast and the bills passed by those legislators who know full well that if the taxpayers were voting, the bills would be turned down," Reagan said. "Yet too many legislators continue to vote to take or mortgage more of your money."

Reagan said it would have been expedient for him to go along with a withholding of state income tax, to hide costs of government and escape the wrath of the taxpayers. But he said that credit card approach would make it seem the state was spending less when actually it was spending more.

Torrance police have picked up six suspects in connection with a series of burglaries at the home of James L. Lumley, 17639 Fonthill Ave.

Facing a preliminary hearing March 19 in South Bay Municipal Court are Kenneth J. Lamue, 18, of 2250 W. 236th St., and Robert D. Elliot, 19, of 20720 Anza Ave., Apt. 2.

Four other suspects have been turned over to juvenile authorities.

Lumley told police that he had been bowling each time a burglary occurred. Suspect Lamue works as a dishwasher at Palos Verdes Bowl.

One of the burglaries happened as long ago as Jan. 29, 1967, at which time burglars walked off with $127 worth of household goods. The home was burglarized again Feb. 26, 1967, to the tune of $371.

DR. TELFORD WORK Lecture at ECC

Film on Russia Slated

"Russian Spring and Summer," a penetrating non-political documentary of the peoples and places behind the Iron Curtain, will be presented by Dr. Telford H. Work, author and traveler, at the El Camino College Campus Theater tomorrow at 8 p. m.

Dr. Work will discuss city and country life from Leningrad to Yalta in the color motion picture.

Primitive Ukrainian farms, dancers of Omsk, Tolstoy's home, and the Black Sea salt mines will also be depicted.

General admission to the lecture is $1.

Dr. Work was a Navy medical officer during World War II. Since then he has done extensive work in the field of tropical diseases. He has spent much time in England, the Fiji Islands, and Egypt as director of the Virus Research Center.

The world traveler has contributed photographs and illustrated articles to such magazines as National Geographic and the Saturday Evening Post.

Future lectures include "Village Beneath the Sea," presented by Harry Pederson, March 18, and "Laos, the Relaxed Crisis," by Kenneth Armstrong, March 25. Both programs are scheduled for 8 p. m.

'Reading for Adults' Class Is Offered

A spring training class emphasizing reading speed and comprehension is open for public enrollment at three locations, including North High School.

The beginning classes in "Improvement of Reading for Adults" are scheduled to meet weekly, 7 to 9:30 p. m., starting the week of March 25.
