MR. AND MRS. LOUIS WATTERS

Couple Honored

At Reception On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. Louis Watters, 18316 Dorman Ave., were honored guests at a reception given Sunday, March 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Stamm, 1937 W. 184th St., in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary.

The Stamm home was festive in floral arrangements of gardenias, stock and carnations made by another neighbor, Mrs. Ted Ivy. The refreshment table on the patio held a tiered silver and white anniversary cake, topped by a miniature bridal couple, the bridegroom in a United States Navy uniform. The cake was a replica of the original wedding cake.

Daughters of the anniversary celebrants assisted in extending hospitality, Mrs. Peter Fawaz presided at the coffee service, assisted by Miss Rita Watters, while Mrs. Richard Welsh was at the punch bowl. The guest book was attended by Miss Nancy Stamm, daughter of the hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. Watters have resided in North Torrance since their arrival in California nine years ago. Mr. Watters has been employed by the United Airlines for the past 27 years and during World War II was granted a leave by the airline to serve in the Naval Air Transport Service. They were married in Glenview, Ill., Feb. 27 by the late Gilbert S. Watters, CSSR, brother of Mr. Watters. Besides daughters, Mrs. Fawaz, Mrs. Welch and Rita Watters, the couple has a fourth daughter, Patricia.

A special guest at the reception was Mrs. Watters' 82-year-old mother, Mrs. Ann E. Ward of Torrance. Over 60 neighbors and friends were on hand to offer congratulations to the couple, who recently returned from a trip to Greece, which also marked their silver wedding date.

Mrs. Robert Evans of Torrance, who will serve as a hostess when the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club stages its Spring Fashion Show on March 18, is telling her "little shadows," two-year-old twin daughters, Deanna and Leanna, about the event. Proceeds from this major fund raising affair, to be held at the Air Force Officers Club in Inglewood, will be donated to the South Bay Child Guidance Clinic, which aids children, who are emotionally disturbed. Those wishing tickets to the benefit may call Mrs. Sydney Smith of Torrance, general chairman. (Press-Herald Photo)
