Susskind to Speak; Installation Slated

Friendship Wheel of Harbor Section of Business and Professional Women's Clubs has selected the Torrance club to be hostess for the month of March. President Flora Hametman has announced the dinner meeting will be Monday, March 18, at 7:30 p.m. at Smith's Indian Village in Torrance.

Irving Susskind, the speaker with "wit and wallop," will be the feature of the evening and his topic will be "Who, Me?" Susskind, a dynamic personality, has a varied background, including newsreelman, professional photographer, motion picture engineer and former executive director of the world's largest leadership and sales training organization. In 1964 the Orange County Management Conference presented him a special achievement award for his five years of outstanding participation. His presentation will be of interest to both men and women and the public, as well as BPW women, are invited to make reservations by contacting Mrs. Flora Hametman or Mrs. Mark Hulse.

A special added attraction for the evening will be installation of the officers of the BP&W Club for 1968-69. Installing officer will be Miss Kathleen Head, Harbor Section Area chairman for the Leadership Development program.

New officers are Mrs. Carl Erikson, president; Mrs. O. D. Land, vice-president; Mrs. Ruth Johns, vice-president; Miss Eveline Erikson, recording secretary; Mrs. John R. Cummins, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Donald Harbert, auditor.

Breakfast Club Seats Officers

Members of the Torrance Breakfast Club gathered at Margarita's restaurant for dinner before going to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bever, 2520 Eldorado, for the installation of new officers.

A business meeting was conducted by Fred Bever, retiring president, after which Mrs. Fay Parks presented costumes to each new officer to wear during the installation which she conducted. They were Elmo Miller, president; Dr. R. A. Bingham, vice president; Mrs. R. A. Bingham, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Fred Bever, sunshine chairman. The comedy skit for the installation was written by Mrs. O. E. Fossum. Remainder of the evening was spent playing cards.

Attending were Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Bingham, Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum; Messrs. and Mmes. Fred Bever, Elmo Miller, Fay Parks, Vince Villenave; Mmes. Florence Childs, Myrtle Morse and R. E. Moffitt.

BENEFIT THEATER PARTY

Parents Club of the Wingrock School will sponsor a fund raising Theater Party for the school on Sunday evening, March 17, at Grauman's Chinese Theater in Hollywood. A family movie, "Half a Sixpence," starring Tommy Steele, will be the attraction. Buses will leave the school on Lomita Blvd. at 6:30 p.m. Advertising their benefit are students, from left, David Freeman, Jeffrey Stewart, and Randy Laverty with mothers, Mmes. Allen Freeman, Joe Franco, Kenneth Laverty, ticket chairman for Torrance; and Robert Stewart. Tickets and bus reservations may be obtained by calling the school.

European Trip

Mrs. Myra Beeman returned recently from a vacation in Europe. For one month, she was the houseguest of Norman Marsteller, son of Mrs. Baker Smith of Redondo Beach, at his home on the French Riviera at Bealsoleil near Monaco.

Mrs. Beeman then toured the continent spending time in Venice, Rome, and Genoa, Italy; Paris, France; and London, England, where she boarded a plane for the return trip.

Visits Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Adams and children of Saratoga spent five days last week here as guests of Mrs. Adams' parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum on Cota Avenue. Mrs. Adams is the former Myrna Fossum. During their visit, trips were made to Disneyland and Mexico.

A special invitation is extended to all alumni parents. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Two Parties For Gregg On 4th Birthday

March 1, the fourth birthday of Gregg Homolka, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Homolka, 21309 Talisman, was the incentive for two birthday parties.

Grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Homolka and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bever were special guests at a birthday dinner at the Homolka home to celebrate the occasion. A birthday cake was the highlight of the evening after which Gregg opened his gifts. Earlier in the evening, an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen and daughter, Susan, arrived with a birthday gift and good wishes.

On March 2, Mr. and Mrs. Homolka entertained Gregg's friends at a birthday party. A butterfly cake decorated the table and the party-goers were given whistles, horns and balloons.

Playmates attending were Jeffrey Cole, Steve Goldstone, and Roger Maxim.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Giacchino have returned from a two weeks vacation. They went to Santa Barbara where they were guests of former Torrance residents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Catterlin. The vacationers then drove to San Francisco, Sacramento and Reno.

Rummage Sale On Weekend

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Women will stage a rummage sale Friday and Saturday, March 15 and 16, in the church parish hall, 1432 Engracia Ave.

The hours on Friday are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. until noon. Mrs. Betty Turner is chairman of the event.
