Secretaries Invite El Camino Students

Twenty El Camino College students will be the guests of the Los Angeles Chapter of Executives' Secretaries, Inc. at the organization's 13th annual Career Day program to be held at 8:45 Saturday morning, March 30, at the Union Oil Center in Los Angeles.

The 20 coeds are among 180 top secretarial students from junior colleges and business colleges in the Los Angeles area invited to attend. "Destination—Executive Secretary" is the theme of the program, which is designed to assist in preparing young women for careers in business.

Mrs. Kenneth F. Davis, private secretary to Governor Ronald Reagan, will address the group on the subject, "The Excellent Lies Before Us."

Those attending from El Camino College are: Pam Abernathy, Faye Matsuda and Joyce Palermo of Gardena; Cheryl Bullach, Inglewood; Linda Burton and Lorraine Wisniewski, Torrance; Barbara Estes and Billie Holmes, Redondo Beach; Sharon Hawk, Nancy Sideman and Deysi Torres, Lawndale; Noriko Iidaka and Claudia Lytle, Mary Petshak, Jill Potwin and Kathy Walker of Hawthorne.

They will be accompanied by Mrs. Bertha Craft and Mrs. Fern McCoard, business instructors at the college.

Miss Nancy Hogan of Charles Luckman Associates is in charge of arrangements. Miss Bernyce Pomerleau of California Federal Savings and Loan Association is serving as co-chairman.

Pocahontas Council Honors Mrs. Barbour

Ah We Na Sa Council, Degree of Pocahontas, will honor Hilla Barbour of Gardena at a reception on March 25 at the Wednesday Progressive Club celebrating her 40th anniversary as a member of the Degree of Pocahontas.

"The Night of Memories" will be highlighted by members of her family performing in key spots to recall her activities in this oldest patriotic fraternity.

Mrs. Barbour's daughter, Helen, will serve as mistress of ceremonies. She will be presented by another daughter, Mrs. John Garvey of Inglewood and a granddaughter, Lonnie Garvey, will turn the pages of the memory book.

Mrs. Barbour, who is a charter member of the Onawa Council of Los Angeles, organized in 1928, has held many district and state appointments. When the Onawa Council was disbanded, she became a charter member of the Ah We Na Sa Council instituted in August 1967. A son, John Barbour, and six grandchildren will join her in the festivities.

The Gardena Council recently was honored with a certificate from Freedom's Foundation of Valley Forge for the 100 per cent contribution from members for the founding of the Faith of Our Fathers Chapel. Members are currently distributing literature to combat communism.

Mrs. Lillian Wundrow, membership chairman, is in charge of flowers for Mrs. Barbour's reception. Forming an escort team will be Mmes. Margaret Heath, Chris Neuenswander, Cecile Male, Mary McComb, Bardell Whelan, Barbara Simundson and Esther Lovejoy.

Rho Xi Plans Wine Tasting Party March 27

Rho Xi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will sponsor a Wine Tasting Party on Friday evening, March 29, from 7 to 9 p.m. to swell their general fund.

The event will be held at the Brookside Winery Cellar, No. 6, Ports 'O Call Village in San Pedro.

Tickets may be secured from any member or by calling Mrs. Richard Reising, 721 W. 39th St., San Pedro.

The chapter will hold its regular meeting on March 27 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Carlson in San Pedro. Mrs. Richard Reising will present the program "The Art of Thinking."

Chapter To Hear League Member Talk

At the next regular meeting of Xi Zeta Chi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Mrs. Don Meade, of the Torrance League of Women Voters, will speak to members and guests on "Civic Responsibilities." Mrs. Meade is a long-time member of the League and has given much time to encouraging people, women in particular, to become more active within their community and to learn more about their privileges as voters. The discussion will be centered upon what ways, individually and as a group, women can contribute to a better citizenship.

The meeting will be held on Wednesday, March 27, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Al Macho in Gardena. Mrs. Don Anderson will be attending as guest of the chapter. Members planning to attend are Mmes. Carl Carlson, Fay Goodman, Jerry Hanlon, Al Macho, Chenia Newberry, Stanley Nelson, Joe Ondell, John Sparks, Al Weaverling, Inez Kolp, and Miss Hilda Brown.

Surprise Party For Mrs. Kimble On Birthday

Mrs. James Kimble, 4749 Darien, was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party given recently by her husband.

The Kimbles and their two children, Janice and Griffith, had dinner at the Plush Horse and returning home found a group of friends gathered to celebrate the occasion.

Cocktails were served and guests enjoyed a late buffet.

Attending the party were Messrs. and Mmes. J. A. Eisenbrant, Torrance; William Crooker, Miraleste; R. L. Love and E. W. Lee, Westchester.

Invited but unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Norman of Torrance.

Stage Luncheon

Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 will sponsor a "Dinner is Served" Wednesday, March 27 at noon in their new meeting place, the Rod and Gun Club, 1845 Plaza Del Amo.

Torrance Little League Dance Saturday

Auxiliary to the Torrance Little League will sponsor a benefit dance Saturday evening, March 30, at the Retail Clerks Hall, on Belleporte Avenue in Harbor City.

There will be dancing, food and door prizes. The public is invited to attend. Proceeds will be used to support the Little League.
